"Old Glory"

For Democracy

Poem by
JOS. BOYLE

Music by R. A. BROWNE

grand?— Like Sis-ter, Dad and Mother, Each son I try to smother, With tear dimm'ed eyes we bid the boys good bye. — grand?— They've never lost a battle, They love the cannon's rattle, They are the boys who al-ways win, you bet. —
Chorus
Dem-o-cra-cy the battle cry of Freedom! Till Peace and Li-ber-ty shall be res-mf tored — Dem-o-cra-cy that's headed by Old Glo-ry To put down Au-to-cra-cy and the sword — Our cause is just in God we trust And the dear Old Red, White and Blue. —
