JUL 25 1918 ©CLE128894

"OUR COUNTRY'S FLAG"

SONG

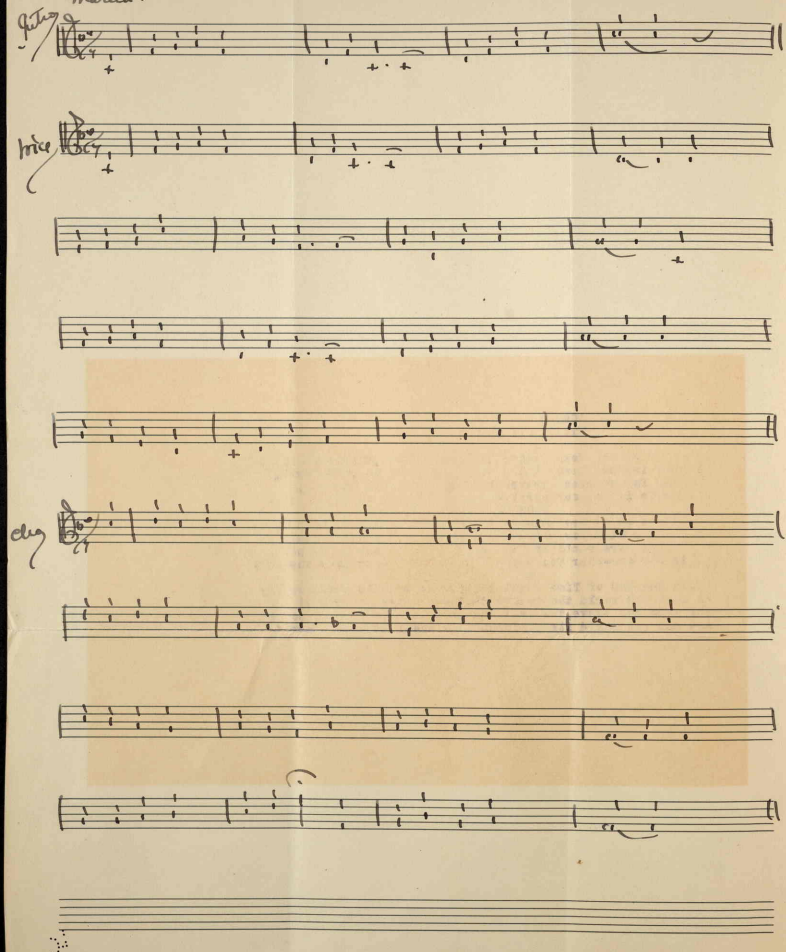
POEM © COPYRIGHT BY MRS. CHAS. A. SPENCER.

R.R. 1 WAVELAND. IND.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
700 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



Marcia.

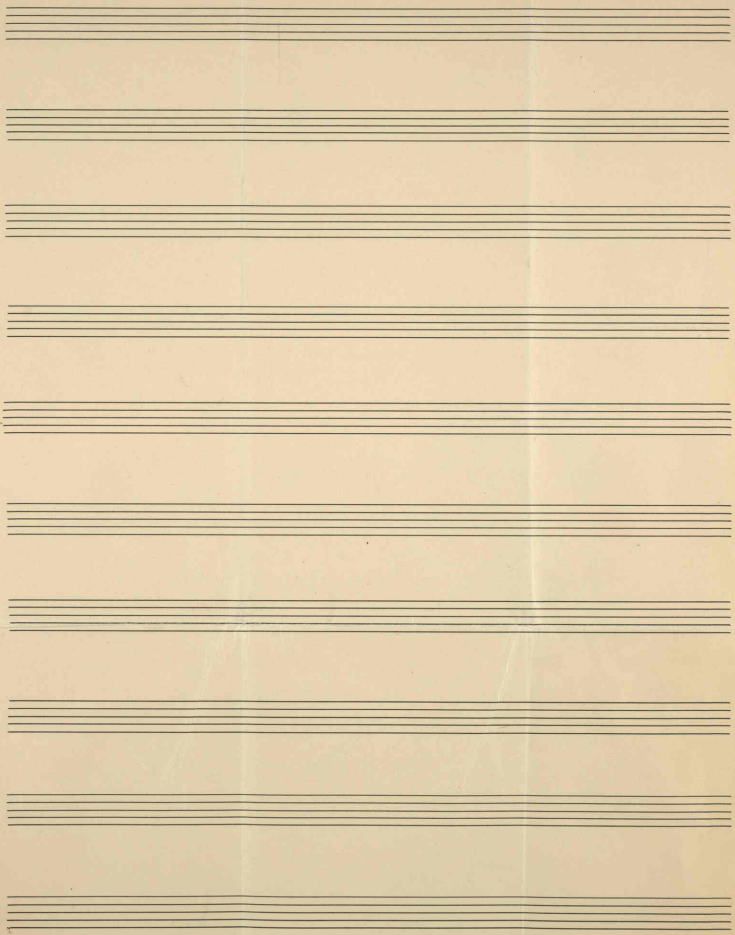
"Our Country's Flag"
Mrs. Chas. A. Spencer.

1

The Flag of our dear Native Land, is the Red, White, and Blue;
Beneath its beauteous folds we stand, so strong, and loyal, too;
The Red for us means bravery; The Blue is from the sky,
And White is for our purity--that ne'er can change or die.

CHORUS.

The Stars on it are shining bright, emblem of great and small;
There is a Star for ev'ry State, a Star that ne'er shall fall;
No hatred here can e'er find room; there's naught but peace and rest;
It is our own--Our Country's Flag--the Flag we love the best!

2


Until the end of Time twill last; where e'er it waves on high;
To show the world the colors that can never never die!
The pure and brave, the true and good, they love it, ah so well!
And all the world its wondrous tale shall to each other tell.