"Our Flag Waves Over German Soil" Mrs. May Hartman.

The Armistice they HAD to sign, the Yanks came by the score;
And when the Kaiser thought he'd win, we sent a million more;
I tell you, boys, his blood ran cold, when out boys formed in line;
He thought it best for him to get the Armistice, and SIGN!

CHORUS.

Now we are done with Kaiserism, xxx

And Democracy rules over all;

The people now are free from Hun's vile treachery!

For our Flag waves over German soil!

The Yankees and the Frenchies are all noble, brave and true;

Our heroes underneath the sod, they are all heroes, too;

They put their faith and trust in God, in War's grim hard turmoil,

Their fate will live in story, for the Flag's o'er German soil!
