"Our Khaki Boys In France. "

by Minnie A. Conklin.

-1-

Oh, Bill the Kaiser didn't know what he was up against;
When he began to wage the U-boat war in his defense;
He didn't know the khaki boys, nor knew the boys in blue;
But he will know them all too well before they do get through.

He never thought the U. S. A. would send the boys away;
For he was confident he'd win before the break of day.
But, nothing doing, old man Bill, and you will sorry be
That you went up against us, Bill, and tried to rule the sea.

-3-

The world war it will end and commerce will begin to mend;
And then each other as before the nations will befriend;
Then we will all live happy, for the U-boat will not score;
And then our grand old country will be at peace once more.

CHORUS.

When they see the boys in France and they're starting to advance,
Then the Germans they will say "Rouse mit der Kaiser!"
"Woodrow Wilson is our friend, and this war is at an end,
We're through with Wilhelm der hypnotizer. "
