MAY -9 1917
©CLA 104954

"OUR LOYAL VOLUNTEERS"

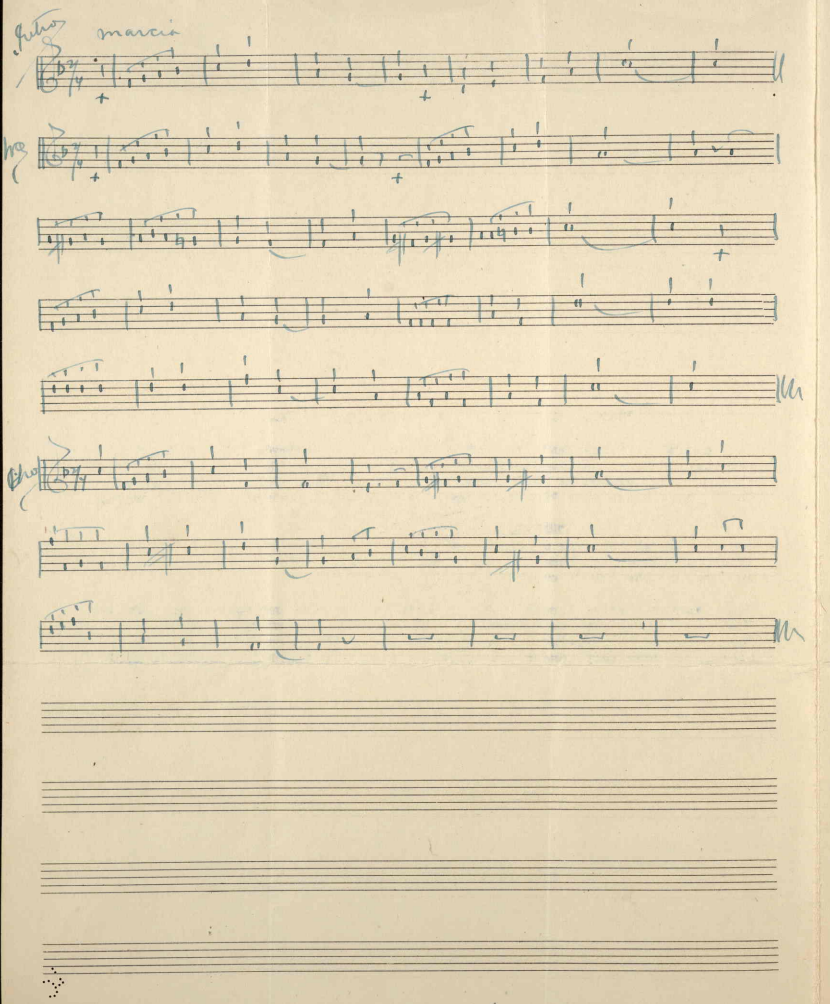
SONG

POEM and COPYRIGHT, 1917, BY MRS. E. A. MURPHY JR., R.6 OSWEGO, N.Y.

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE

ART BRAND No. 10 M1646 .B



Flauto
marcia
Fl.
Cl.

"Our Loyal Volunteer" By Mrs. E.A.Murphy JR.

The home ties of our land are broken, by our dear Country's call "To Arms"
And homes o'er all the land are saddened, and hearts are filled with grave alarm
The tears and prayrs of loving mothers in silence fall from shore to shore;
While nobly brave they bid their loved ones, farewell, perhaps to meet no more.

CHORUS.

May He who watches ever ever, and marks each little sparrow fall;
Bring comfort at the homes now saddened, and protect the heroes one and all.
And protect the heroes one and all.

2

When our the fields they're nobly fighting, their Flag and Country to defend;
Their duty guided by their birthright, their prayrs for vitry oft ascend;
For peace and victry. Flag, and Country; they nobly fight.. would nobly fall;
Like loyal sons they rose to action, when first they heard the Counrty's call

405849