

The President the Pride OF Our Nation.

SONG

POEM BY
CHAS. CURTIS
611 POOLE ST.
NORFOLK, VA.

MUSIC BY
R. A. BROWNE

Misc
B All Performing and

Mechanical Rights Reserved

U.S. AND INTERNATIONAL
COPYRIGHTS SECURED

Published By
CHAS. CURTIS

The President—The Pride Of Our Nation

Words by
CHAS. CURTIS

Music by
R. A. BROWNE

INTRO.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a melody in G major, marked mf, with a 7-measure rest. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The first system shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has three lines of lyrics with blank lines for notes. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction.

1. The Pres-i-dent's the pride of this great na-tion, He's
2. His au-di-ence is ev'-ry oth-er na-tion, He
3. A-mer-i-ca's the on-ly place to live in, The

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has three lines of lyrics with blank lines for notes. The piano accompaniment continues.

Pres-i-dent of all the brave and free; He's the one star, so bright that all-ways re-pre-sents all creeds, all faiths, all race; By dis-ci-pline and prin-ci-ples he peo-ple here are good folks all the year; From ev'-ry side let Free-dom glad-ly

The third system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has three lines of lyrics with blank lines for notes. The piano accompaniment continues.

guides us, And lights us on our way to vic-to-ry.
guides us; So at the head of all we take our place!
ring out, For all good old world men are wel-come here!

CHORUS

3

Our Pres - i - dent is a great man, — all hon - or to his name! He makes our coun - try great - er still he adds un - to our Fame!

4
Our President he is a man of action,
A patriot at heart, that we respect;
A man of intellect and satisfaction,
He is the man we were glad to elect!

5
America's the place for fine endeavor;
Of Honest Principles that never lag;
A league of Nations we must now engender,
All war lords they must bow before our Flag!

6
America! how proud we all are of her;
We love her ev'ry hill; her ev'ry plain;
In our great President always confiding,
That's why we never have aught to complain.

7
When all the nations Presidents have some day
Without an Army, Navy, money, too;
We all can do without and makes life better,
Among the poor, the weak, the sick that's true!

8
Some day there will be no wars and forever
The Age of Folly it will all be past;
And world's Fairs will display the arts of war-fare,
As curiosities that could not last!

IN the beginning our President the Honorable Woodrow Wilson, is a great hero and as such it behoves us to show our Loyalty and do our duty always to make him proud of the dignified position he holds in which he has and is so ably fulfilling. During his administration which we all must admit is a burdensome task for a President and as we cannot elect him for our next President the author of this song thinks it a very good idea to have a song woven around our dear President to show our appreciation of his worth to us and our great country. The author solicites the utmost untiring efforts in efficiency on the part of the leading Orchestra's Bands, Talking Machines Company's and Player Piano Company's to show their Loyalty to our great President by immediate observance to the set rule of (Your Country and President First) the author mindful of the observance to this rule do request you to immediately programme this number in honor of our thrifty President while he is officiating at the utmost heights of efficiency attainable in the history of his office. Record manufacturers, please see who can be the first among you, to record this number immediately and thereby exhibit your loyalty, patriotism, and duty, to your hero President in order that the good deeds of this great American will live in song as well as in memory and history, do it now, record your honorable President in this song of praise just now while he is in office.

This address is written in due respect by Chas. Curtis.