©CLE427854
JUL 31 1918

"SWAT THE HUN!"

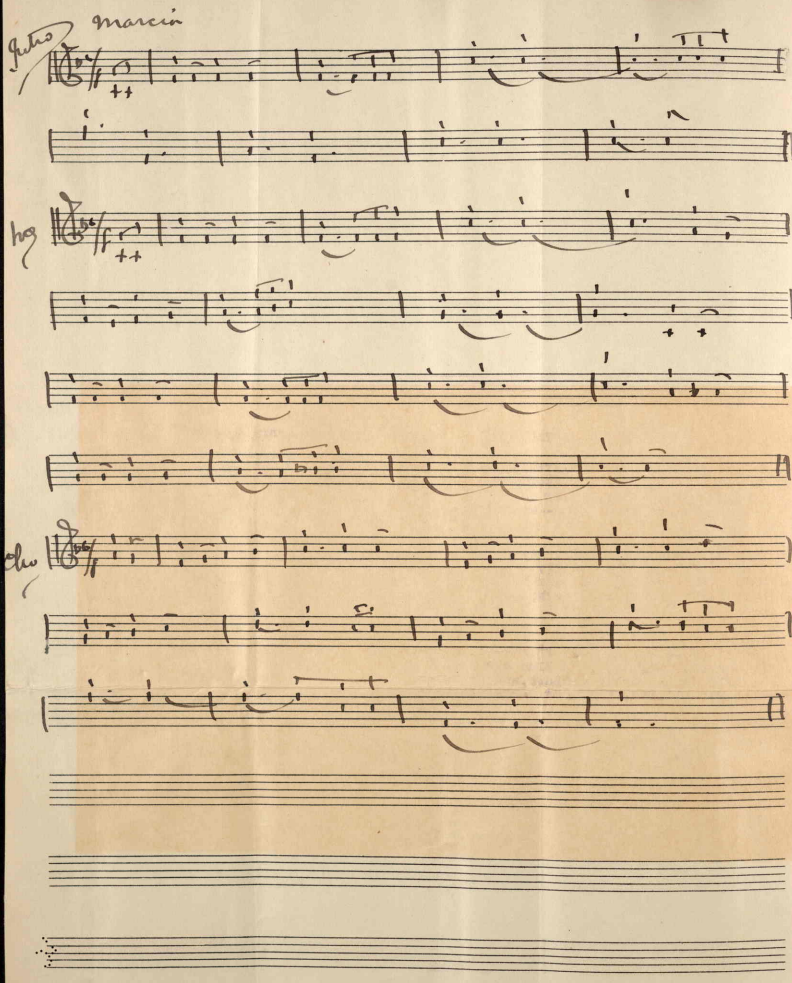
Song.

Poem r. Copyright By Jos. J. Johnson & Henry A. Sorrell, Represn. Calif.

Music By

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



WATERSON, BERLIN and SNYDER CO., Strand Theatre Bldg. Broadway at 47th St. New York

"SWAT THE HUN!" By J. & J. Johnson, and Henry A. Sorrell.

1

If the War is to be won, grab a gun!
We must do our duty, now--keep our vow!
We will fight with all our might--for the right;
We are coming, one by one--swat the Hun!

CHORUS.

We will make old Bill the Kaiser
Much sadder and much wiser;
We'll pull him from his perch
Then leave him in the lurch;
Swat the Hun! Swat the Hun!

2

We will join our boys in France--take a chance;
To the old Red, White, and Blue ever true;
We will reach Berlin or Bust, and we trust
That you all, yes, ev'ry one, swat the Hun.

WATERSON, BERLIN and SNYDER CO., Strand Theatre Bldg. Broadway at 47th St. New York

WATERSON, BERLIN and SNYDER CO., Strand Theatre Bldg. Broadway at 47th St. New York

436054