

DEC -6 1917

©MELFR792

THAT'S WHY-AMERICA-THE ALLIES-NEED-YOU-NOW

June

POEM and COPYRIGHT. BY JOS. D. RAPP, MORTON, ILL.

MUSIC BY

K. A. BROWNE,
780 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646

.B

marcato

alto

key

alto

"That's Why--America--The Allies Need You, Now" Jas. D. Rapp.

1

They are waiting for you, dear America,
 Just to send a lot of soldiers' cross the sea;
 They have seen our boys a-training, and they knew they were not playing--
 Then they'll get the Kaiser in a taut;
 And we'll surely help the Allies out.

CHORUS.

We will send them two million men that will send the Germans on the run;
 We have the Red Cross and the Liberty Bond, that will keep them free from harm.
 So the Allies at last will have a nation
 That will give the Kaiser quite a lacing--
 That's why--America--the Allies need you now!

2

Now the Allies know that we're helping them;
 And they know that we will send two million men;
 We have sent food, clothes and money; to keep the boys so gay and funny;
 We will see how long the Kaiser lasts;
 If the Allies only hold him fast.

