

"There'll Be A Hot Time For The Kaiser"

Words by
P. H. SOMMERS.

Music by RAMOND A. BROWNE, and
F. O. BOOS.

Intro. VOICE.

Good - bye dear old A - mer - i - ca, I'm
We tried hard for un - tral - i - ty, but

Marcia.

going to fight for you; With man - y thous - and oth - ers who have hearts as good and true; It you would not a - gree; You scorned our Pres - i - dent al - so our Flag of Lib - er - ty; You is a long long way to France a - cross the rag - ing sea; But we will put Old Glo - ry there, And tried to rule the whole wide world, with your U - sub - mar - ines; 'Till Un - cle Sam just had to say "Now,

Piu cresc.

Keep it wav - ing free, And once we're land - ed we'll keep on right thru to Ger - man - y.
Bill, war's what this means; Now to the Stars and Stripes you'll have to an - swer as you'll see.

Piu cresc.

Copyright MCMXVII by P. H. Sommers.
All rights reserved.

CHORUS.

mf There'll be a hot time for the

mf ff 8va Marcato. mf

8va ad lib. Can be omitted.

Kais-er when we get a - cross the sea; And to the Stars and Stripes he'll have to make a - pol - o - gy; And when he sees our old Glo - ry wav - ing ov - er ev - 'ry trench; He'll take his hat off you can bet, to the Yan-kees and the French; For we've won ev - ry bat - tle that we fought, on land and sea; There'll be a hot time for the Kais - er when we get there you see,

cresc. cresc.

43412