©CLE 41917
MAR 29 1918

"U.S. KHAKI"

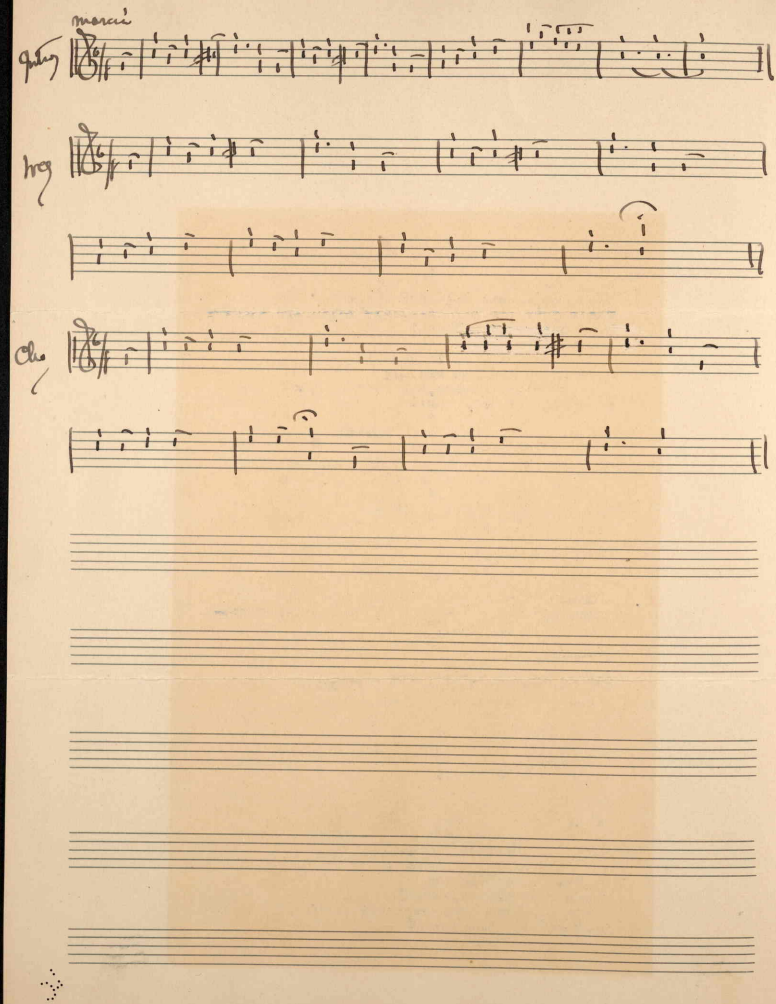
SONG

POEM & COPYRIGHT BY CLARA BELL DAVIS / 333 CAMPBELL ST. HARRISONBURG PA

MUSIC BY

R. A. BROWNE,
780 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



merci

"U. S. Khaki" Clara Bell Davis.

1

Here come our boys in khaki
Look out, rick! rack! rick! racky!
Their guns are bright--their belts are tight--
Look out for U. S. khaki!

2

Here come the boys in khaki;
Not one of them is slacky;
They're slow to come, but slow to go--
Look out for U. S. Khaki!

3

Keep step! keep step with khaki!
To go it is a long way;
O'er ocean wide, and mountain side--
Will go our boys in khaki!

4

There go our boys in khaki!
They're going off a long way;
And ocean wave may be their grave--
Good bye, my own dear khaki!

5

There go our boys in khaki!
A long way off they're going
Where big guns boom they'll find their tomb--
Hooray for U. S. Khaki!

6

On! On! keep step with khaki!
For ev'ry one's a drawing
With ev'ry one that totes a gun--
A heart goes out to khaki;

7

There go our boys in khaki!
A long way with no turning;
Our hope is high, well may they die--
Hooray for U. S. Khaki!

8

There go our boys in khaki;
Perhaps with no returning;
But honor's name, and glory's flame
Will keep forever burning.

CHORUS.

Oh, khaki! khaki! khaki,
Rackety rack! rick, racky!
Their guns are bright--their belts are tight--
Look out for U. S. Khaki!

BIBLIOTECA

42576