"We're Going To Make A Drive For The Hindenbergh Line"
Thos. S. Alvis.

1

Come on, now, you musicians, and strike up a lively air!
Come on, you Yankees and Marines, and Allies, too, be there;
Come on, and bring Old Glory, let the foe see the Stars shine;
We're going to make a drive on the Hindenbergh line.

2

Come, General Foch, join Pershing, and take the Germans in;
We are not going to stop, until they holler out "You win!"
So, bring along some chicken and some fine strawberry wine,
We're going to make a drive on the Hindenbergh line.

3

Come, on you Mister Wilhelm and take off that old crown;
Come on, you Hindenbergh and say that you will soon lie down;
Just say your pray'rs and make your will, and all the rest resign--
We're going to make a drive on the Hindenbergh line.

CHORUS

Come on, you aviators, and soar up in the sky;
Come on, you Yankee drivers, with tanks you'll make 'em fly;
Come on you dandy gunners, put in your shells, and shoot;
And you Marines, will find the means to make the huns all scoot;
We're going to get the Nations free--the Kaiser must resign-
We're going to make a drive on the Hindenbergh Line.
