"We Are Going With Pershing Of The U.S.A." by Mrs. E. F. Morris.

Don't let the Flag go down, boys; let all the Nations 'round;
Know that our Starry Banner has never touched the ground;
Don't let the Flag go down, boys, and tell them not get ~~off~~;
For Pershing he is coming, yes, from the U.S.A.

CHORUS.

Unfur the Flag; let it float to the breeze;

It means Freedom wherever it may be;

All shout "Freedom" - let it ring o'er the sea;

For the Khaki boys are coming from the U.S.A.

2

We're going out with Pershing to hit a mighty foe;

The Stars and Stripes will follow -- wherever they may go;

We're going to fight the battles, of nations far away

We're going out with Pershing, from this old U.S.A.

3

And we will return, later, tho some boys may not come;

But while we're over yonder, you bet we'll make things hum;

They'll all remember Pershing, and in those lands, far away;

Ah, wise our Jolly Sailors from this old U.S.A.
