"We're Going O'er To Sunny France!" By Laura M. Erwin.

1

From o'er the seas we hear the call: "America, come on!"
And help us lick old Kaiser Bill on this side of the Pond;
So mothers, sister, sweethearts, wives, don't cry--just smile and pray--
For we'll soon lick old Kaiser Bill, and all come home, some day.

2

We're going o'er to Sunny France; together we will stand
To fight for freedom and for peace, on sea and on the land;
So keep on fighting--England, France--we'll all get there, some day--
And help you lick old Kaiser Bill, we're eager for the fray.

CHORUS.

Hello, France! we're on the way--we'll be with you, soon!
Hundreds--thousands--of our lads are eager for the fray;
We'll get William on the run, when we get over there--
So keep on fighting till we come, for we'll be with you soon.
