"When The Boys Come Home From Over There" By Mollie McCartan.

1

Oh, how are your helping our boys "over there"?
Are you backing them, backing them ev'rywhere?
  Are you doing your bit; just the Kaiser to hit--
Yes, how are you showing your own loyalty?

2

Are you working and saving every h our?
Are you now exerting your every pow'r?
  That your God gave to you to help our soldiers through?
In this war for all the world's Humanity?

3

Then what will you do just to help the boys through?
Remember, they're fighting for me and for you!
  They are risking their all, answ'ring Uncle' Sam's call--
They're fighting for us and for Humanity!

CHORUS.

When the boys come home from over there;
What rejoicing there'll be ev'rywhere;
  When the country it is saved,
  From that tyrant and that knave--
Well rejoice in freedom evermore.
