"When The Bugle Calls"W.H.Robinson.

1

When the bugle calls, to stand by home and right;
To leaveoff ev'ry care, and march into the fight;
Will you be there to go?To march through sleet and snow?
When the bugle calls?

2

When the bugle calls, my Country tis for thee,
That I should give my blood, for dear sweet liberty,
Will you then answer no?will you refuse to go--
When the bugle calls?

3

When the bugle calls, a cruel Nation's band
With cruel words and deeds, they threaten our fair land,
Will you, then, let them in? or will you go and win,
When the bugle calls?

4

When the bugle calls, it stirs the mother's breast
With signs she giveher sons, on yonder shores to rest;
She gives, so why not you. When she is, an go true!
When the bugle calls.

CHORUS. When the bugle calls,
America's on the run;
Old Glory whispers sweetly:
"Let us get the Hun!"
No cowards in merica,
On yonder shore to fall;
We'll follow Old Glory,
When the bugle calls!!
