"When The Victory Bells Are Ringing!"
Laura M. Aron.

1

Little girl, it is time to leave you! wont you Kiss me with a smile?
Our Country's voice is calling, and it may be for a while
Tho it's hard to part, don't forget, Sweetheart, that to you I will be true;
When the War is done, and the fight is won--I'll return, little girl, to you!

CHORUS.

When the Victory Bells are ringing, and the cannon's voice is still;
When the Flag of Peace is waving, over mountain, vale and hill;
You will know I am returning--love's vows again to renew--
When the Victory Bells are ringing, I am coming back to you!

2

When I'm far far away in battle, keep the love light burning bright;
Be brave and keep on smiling, and pray for me day and night;
And if days seem dark, dreary, too, sweetheart, still, the sun will surely shine;
And my heart will yearn, ye, my heart will burn, for the day that I call you mine.
