"When The Yankees Come Sailing Home"
By Mrs Chas. Sprague.

1

When the Yankees come sailing home, a great jubilee there'll be;
They'll be coming home, noted heroes, from the great war-far over the sea;
In the battles they've risked their lives--in saving a most noble cause--
They have won America's praise--i keeping the peace and laws.

CHO.

When the Yankees come sailing home to you;
When the Yankees come sailing home to me;
When the Yankees come sailing home
What a great jubilee there'll be! there'll be!
What a great jubilee there'll be.

2

When the Yankees come sailing home; the whistles will loudly blow;
America's bells will be ringing, and the people will all sing, you know;
And the fond mothers, wives, and sweethearts, children, brothers, and sisters, too
To welcome, they'll be right there--in greeting our soldiers, true.
