©CLE 116710

JAN 31 1918

DEDICATED TO THE KIWANIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

OUR FLAG

WORDS BY CHARLES L. H. WAGNER
MUSIC BY WILL ELLSWORTH BROWN

"For it's your Flag, friend, it's my Flag, it belongs to you and me,
We will live for it, we will die for it, at home or across the sea,
The Stars and Stripes forever shall wave as a symbol true
Of our Freeman's right, and our Country's might I'm proud of it – are you?" Chorus.

Published By The Paramount Music Company at 249 Washington St. Boston, Mass.

LIBERTY JUSTICE

EQUALITY UNITY

M1646
.B

OUR FLAG

Words by CHARLES L. H. WAGNER

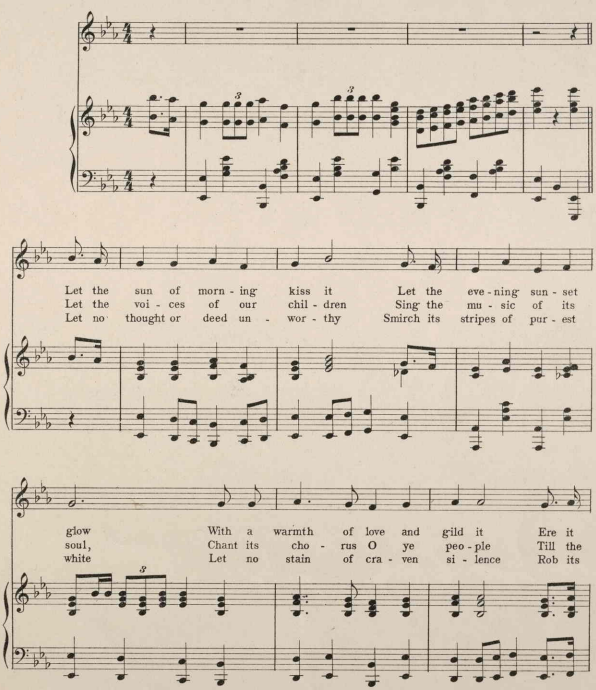
Music by
WILL ELLSWORTH BROWN



Copyright, 1918, by Paramount Music Company International Copyright Secured

sets in depths be - low Let the winds ca - ress and moun - tain ech - oes roll Sing and shout its hymn of red of lus - tre bright Let no shame be - dim the 8
fold it Let the stars in glo - ry shine On the free - dom, Fling its spir - it to the breeze Till the star - shine On its field of heaven - ly blue For its ritard
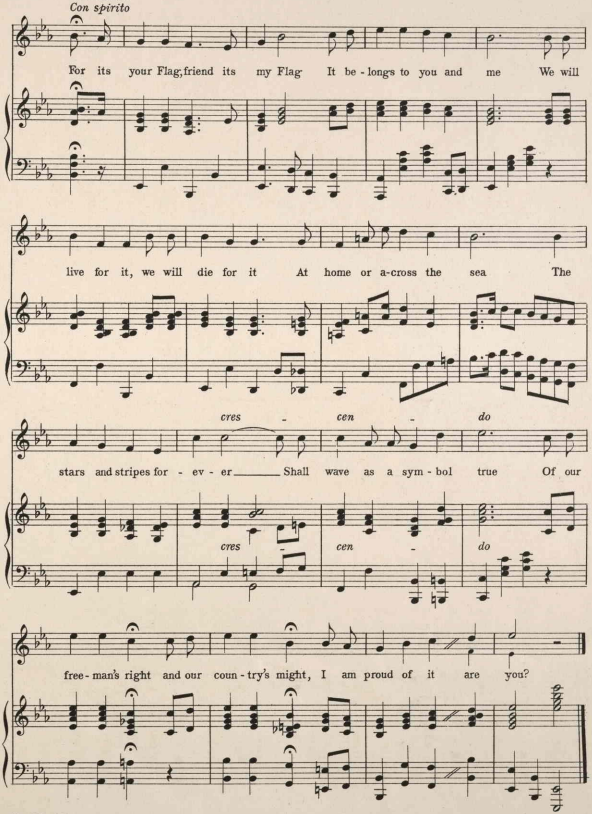
em - blem of our coun - try Lov'd as your Flag lov'd as mine.
notes are caught and an - swered In the hearts a - cross the seas.
our Flag, friend, its our Flag, I am proud of it are you?

REFRAIN
Con spirito



421509