

MAY 12 1917

We Hear You, Uncle Sam

A SONG OF LOYALTY

Words and Music by WILLIS G. BROWN

Published by
THE RATON PUBLISHING CO.
Raton, New Mexico

Price 25c.

Copyright, 1917, by Willis G. Brown

H 1646

WE HEAR YOU, UNCLE SAM

Words and Music by WILLIS G. BROWN

Arr. C. B. NASH

Marcia

f mf

We hear you, Un - cle Sam - u - el, Our feet are on the way. Our steps are light, Our cour - age bright, We are com - ing with re-asst - less might, the might of Lib - er - ty! We are f 3

CHORUS

com - ing a - long, W - e are com - ing a - long, We are trav - el - ing the high - way, Un - cle Sam - u - el, W - e are com - ing a - long, W - e are com - ing a - long, We're be - hind you ev 'ry min - ute, Un - cle Sam!

We hear you, Uncle Samuel,
 We hear you joyously.
 Our hearts aflame, we'll quickly tame
 Aggressions on our rights and name---
 The name of Liberty!

We hear you, Uncle Samuel,
 Oh, yes, we hear you well!
 And gather from your words and tones
 You have no use at all for thrones
 Or foes of Liberty.

We're coming, Uncle Samuel!
 We come a million strong!
 Alphonse and Mike, Abram and Ike,
 Gustaf and Ole and Bill, to strike
 Once more for Liberty!

