"Brave Soldier Lads" Percy E. Porter.

1

Never mind the days, so long and dreary;
Never mind the hours that slowly drag;
Keep your spirits always bright and cheery;
For the lad that's fighting for his Flag.

CHORUS.

He's fighting there for you, and he will till strife is through,
Till all is done of war--brave soldier lads!
They'll win the day, that's true, and then come back to you--
With hearts still staunch and true--brave soldier lads!

2

You, who stay at home, and often wonder --
Wonder if this war will ever cease;
Think of him among the cannon's thunder--
Hoe he's fighting, there, to give you peace/.
