There are also some handwritten annotations like "Andante" and "marcato" written above the staves.

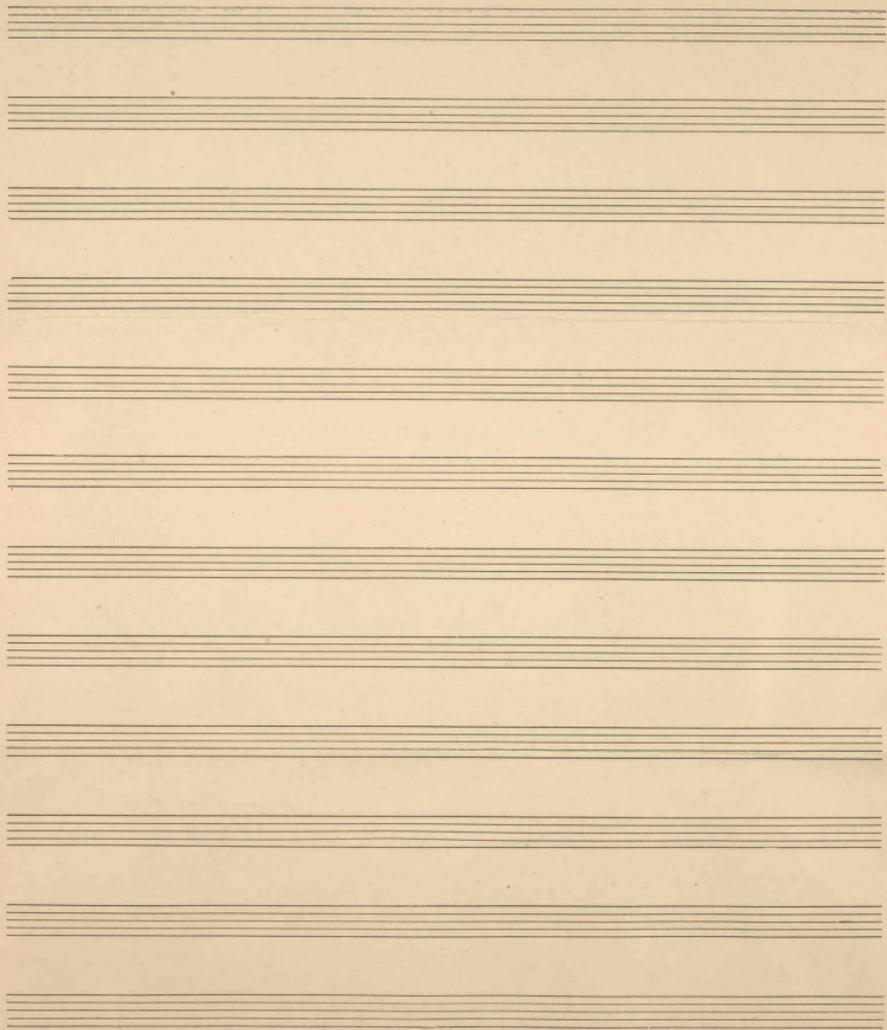

"Women of America"
Mrs. V. M. Sherman..

1
The women of America are called upon to day;
To make the sacrifice and send their dearest ones away;
In Sixty One our grandmothers they answered that same call;
So, let us prove that we are now their daughters, one and all.

CHORUS.

2
Our boys in khaki in the trenches of France;
Will "strafe" the Deutchers at the very first chance;
They'll put the Hun to rout, make the Kaiser face about,
And when the world has been made free,
They'll all come marching home again, Hurrah! Hurrah!
And we'll greet them with three rousing cheers.

3
YOU women of America, come, rally to the need!
That call for help from o'er the seas is what we'll surely heed;
Since womanhood is suffering from a tyrant's treachery;
We'll gladly send our boys and men to help and set them free.
