The musical score is written on four systems of five-line staves. The first system is marked 'Intro' and 'marcato.' and includes a treble clef, a 2/4 time signature, and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The music consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplets. The second system is marked 'beg' and continues the melody. The third system continues the piece. The fourth system concludes the piece with a double bar line. There are some handwritten annotations and a circled '3' at the end of the first system.

"Yankee Boys" By Addison Wakefield.

1

They are speeding o'er the foam, to protect loved ones at home,
 From the foe who all world freedom would destroy;
 They'll restore poor Bel-gi-um, from oppression of the Hun,
 So, hurrah for our noble Yankee boy.

2

Many boys will ne'er return, many sorry hearts will yearn;
 'Tis the price we pay that freedom we enjoy;
 Serving at their country's call; they are heroes one and all;
 So, hurrah for our Noble Yankee boy!

3

Through the shellin' they advance, Yankee soldiers now in France;
 Tho' the gas and tho' the liquid fire a noy;
 But their courage ne'er will fail, and Old Glory must prevail;
 So, hurrah for our Noble Yankee Boy!

CHORUS.

Hurrah! Hurrah! for soldiers and for tar--they are the nations pride and joy!
 Neath the Banner of the Free, they'll protect our Liberty--
 So, hurrah for our noble Yankee Boy!
