AUG 22 1919

"A Yankee Doodle Of The U. S. A."

Yankee Doodle is a soldier, who is not afraid to fight,
He will do his best for Liberty;
Where the Stars and Stripes are flying, on the battlefield,
There our Yankee Doodle he will be.

CHORUS.

Glory! Glory! Hallelujah!
Yankee Doodle's gone to dare and do;
He's across the ocean fighting,
For the old Red, White, and Blue!
He's a very gallant soldier,
And there never was a bolder, they all say;
Yankee Doodle's gone to France;
Yankee Doodle takes his chance,
For the U. S. A.

2

Yankee Doodle is a winner, he went over and he won,
Yes, he won the fight for Liberty;
Where the Stars and Stripes were flying, on the battlefield,
There our Yankee Doodle loved to be.
