"Yankee Doodle Doodleum A Do" By M. L. Guyton.

1

The American gilt edged soldiers seem to know what they're about,
If the Germans don't believ it, they will surely find it out;
With their boasted claims of Kultur, professed science and their skill
We will give them Hail Columbia! till we're sure they've got their fill/

2

With firm Woodrow as our leader, General Pershing at the Front;
And Josephus with the Navy, the sky submarines to hunt.
The good wishes of our Teddy, who is full of push and pluck
And the smiles of Taft and Billy, why, we're sure to be in luck.

3

They were all mistaken, sadly, when they would not let us be;
And they kep t on picking at us, on the land and on the sea;
We tried hard to reason with'em, and desired to be their friends
But a brutal war or nothing, seemed to suit the Kaiser's ends.

4

They ought surely get acquainted, with our business ways and means,
And not near so much depended, on their visionary dreams,
Twould have been much better for them, and have lessened their regret,
Also spared them fro the drubbing that they s urely are to get!

5

We're liberty loving people, and we must be let alone;
We have sprung from many nations, but American to the bone,
We will fight, altho we're peaceful, when we are imposed upon,
Our insults will not be settled, till we crush out ev'ry Hun.

CHORUS.

Yankee Doodle, Doodleum A Do! We've started and we're surely going through;
For Freedom, God and Right, united we all fight--Yankee Doodle, Doodleum A Do
