Words by John Cavaletto

OCT 21 1918
©CLE436197

Music by R.H. Browne.

"Peace Liberty and Democracy - That's what we're fighting for"

Marcia

Four

The shot and shell are fall-ing fast in France and England too - And The Kaiser who no doubt is in great fear I know by now - Upon

Many of our boys have fallen (national flower) his castle grounds the golden rod boys so brave and true - And they're going to sow - Well

Many Mothers hearts do yearn for but the Kaisers face assumes a loved ones at the war - Our real and ghost-like hue - On

M1146
.B
No. 4.
Poem and Property of John J. Cavaletto troops go to the battlefield in every staff in Germany will many millions more — The flag red, white and blue — The thundering of cannons and the few years of mean cruelty for whistling of the shells — The which he is to blame — Will sad cries of the Wounded and the soon be stopped and he'll be licked yes, parting of good pals — The licked at his own game — The victories of the allies and the rosy dawn of peace will break the prisoners by the score — and germans end is near — A-strange to say they ask what is the love the roar of battle, then, this U.S. fighting for:

song you'd surely hear:
Peace Liberty And Dem ocracy —
That's what we're fighting mf
for Germany abused our country and That why we're at War —! But Soon we'll clean them up you sell yes we'll wipe them off the shore Peace Liberty and Dem- ocracy — Thats what we're fighting for