Freedom's Victory.

Shout! Shout! Shout! Ye victor legions, shout!
The fierce contested strife is o'er,
And pagan power slain.
Its savage cohorts trampled out,
Will threaten freemen nevermore,
Nor weld anew their chain.

Chorus.---
The vic'try for freedom 's been gained;
The bondaged people from the yoke set free.
Te tyranny, by brutish might sustained,
No more shall weaker nations bend the knee.

Wave! Wave! Wave! Ye dauntless banners, wave!
Float high above the reeking field,
Where fell despotic might.
The clean, young blood, our heres gave,
Rechristens manhood's tarnished shield,
And seals the cause of right.

Praise! Praise! Praise! Ye ransomed people, praise!
In grateful songs your voices lift,
To those who for ye fought.
No prize ye give; no shaft ye raise
Can pay them for the priceless gift,
Their sacrifice has wrought.

Guide! Guide! Guide! O, God, our future guide!
Lest we forget Thou led us on,
And wander from Thy light.
O, let us not, in boastful pride,
Pursue the way of nations gone,
And perish in our might.
