Freedom of the Seas

Allegro Maestoso.
BUGLE CALL, "TO ARMS."

By EDWIN CURTIS BRUEN.

ff

The piano introduction is in 4/4 time, marked ff. The right hand features a melodic line with triplets and sixteenth-note patterns, while the left hand provides a steady bass accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

VOICE.

The voice line is in 4/4 time, starting with a half rest followed by a series of quarter and eighth notes. The melody is simple and rhythmic, matching the tempo of the piano accompaniment.

1. Hark-en friend— the bu-gle call is sounding Call-ing to arms the true and the brave
2. We will go and fall in with those marching Brave-ly fight till vic-to-ry is won

f

The piano accompaniment for the first two verses is in 4/4 time, marked f. It features a steady bass line with quarter notes and a right hand with chords and moving lines, providing harmonic support for the voice.

The voice line for the final verse continues the melody from the previous lines, ending with a half note. It is in 4/4 time.

To a-venge our brothers ruthless drowning For their dir-ges are sung by ev-'ry wave
The true pray'rs of lov-ed ones sustain-ing Un-til all have a place in the sun

The piano accompaniment for the final verse continues the harmonic support, ending with a final chord. It is in 4/4 time.

THE FREEDOM OF THE SEAS

rit.

For their dir - ges are sung by ev - 'ry wave Its clear notes fill our souls with longing Un - til all have a place in the sun Get be - hind the guns and make them rattle rit.

Not of hate but for lib - er - ty's love God temper the spirits of those warring Dark - est cloud will soon show a silver rift For friends who val - ant - ly do bat - tle cresc.

To re - ceive the peace dove from a - bove, To re - ceive the peace dove from a - bove.
For sweet freedom our God's most precious gift, For sweet freedom our God's most precious gift.
