Forgive Them Not!

Additional Verses

2. In bloody strife we toil and fight for our Red, White and Blue, Protect, oh Lord, our helpless ones, that's what we try to do. With torch and gun and bomb the slum directs his ruthless crew; To sack and spoil all land and toil and that is what they do.

3. "Let us have peace at any price," do cry the weak-kneed few; Tho' ruin comes, forgive them, Lord, they know not what they do. Some talk of peace and human rights, but deal out death and woe, their bloody trail with skill forgive, no, no, oh no, no, no!
