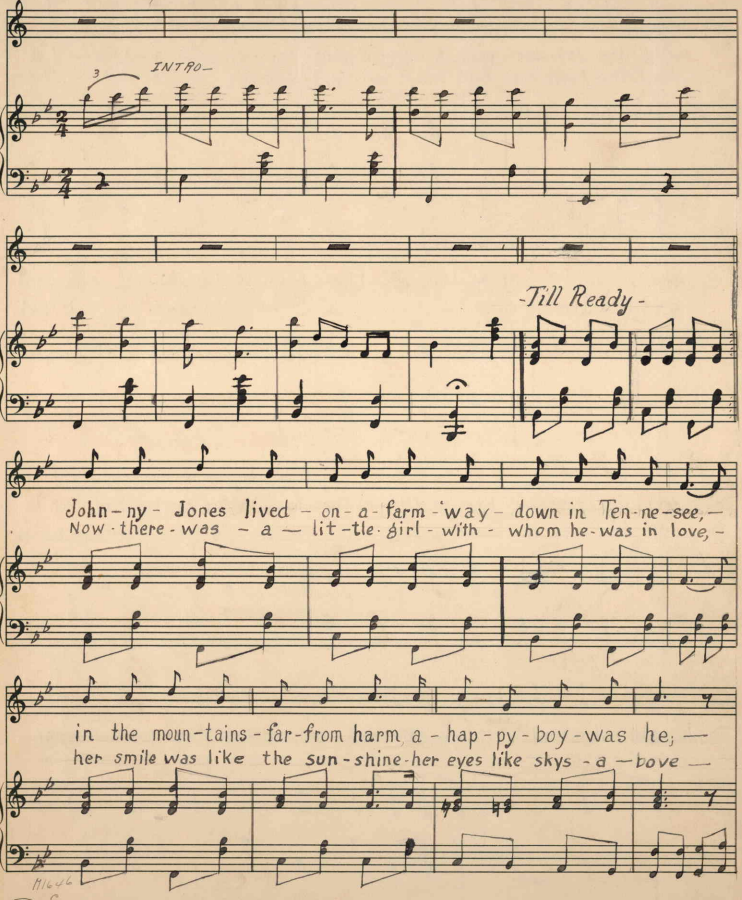
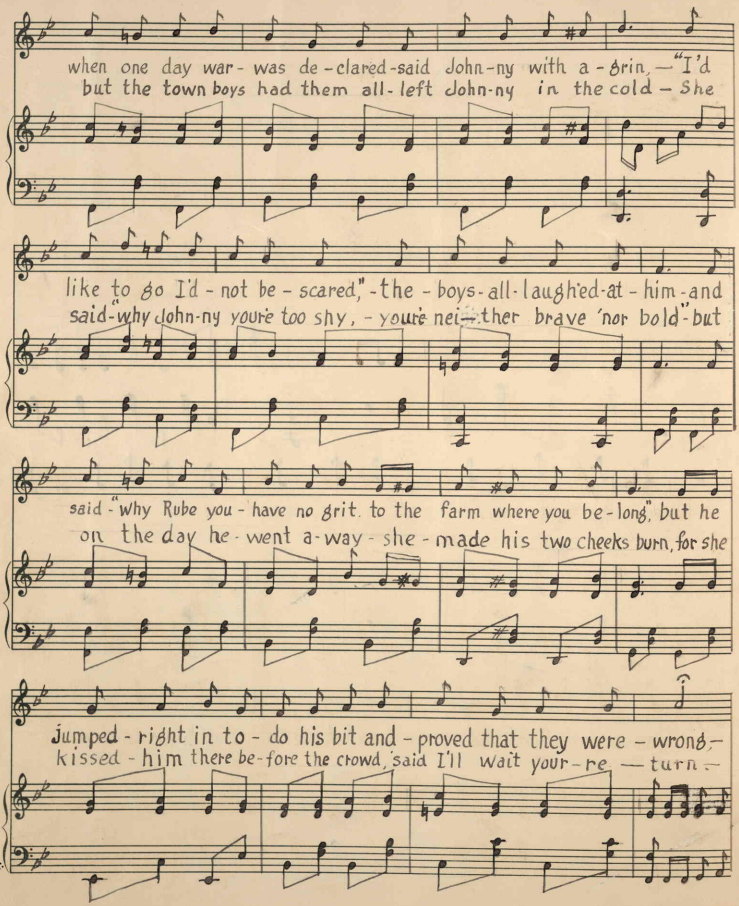
MAY -7 1918 ©CLASS A 124722

Words & Music - Le Roy H. Casto...

JOHNNY JONES IS A SAMMY NOW



Nr. 10. —



when one day war - was de - clared - said John - ny with a - grin, — "I'd but the town boys had them all - left John - ny in the cold - She like to go I'd - not be - scared," - the - boys - all - laugh'ed - at - him - and said - "why John - ny you're too shy, - you're nei - ther brave 'nor bold" - but said - "why Rube you - have no grit to the farm where you be - long," but he on the day he - went a - way - she - made his two cheeks burn, for she Jumped - right in to - do his bit and - proved that they were - wrong; - kissed - him there be - fore the crowd, said I'll wait your - re — turn -

Johnny Jones he is a Sammy now Johnny Jones has proven he's a man — he's gone across the sea, to fight for liberty, for Old Glory and Uncle Sam Johnny's got his gun soon he'll get a Hun, he's gone away to help pro—tect our - homes —— and theres a - hun-dred-mil-lion more on - these U—ni - ted — Shores - Just like - John - ny Jones ——

- Jones -