talk a - bout your hol - i - days from first to last that's gone — Christ - mas, New Years, and seems to me un - safe to leave des - pots like blood - y Bill — In op - u - lence and next in or - der of the days the re - con - struc - tion plan — With al - lies true we'll

Fourth of July, Birth - day of Wash - ing - ton — Thanks - giv - ing too and La - bor Day with lux - u - ry au - to - cra - cy to kill — In - tern them where they're sure to stay, no strive a - new with them to al - ways stand — Give ev - ery na - tion a fair show all ma - ny more at hand — But Lib - er - ty Day's the Day of Days Hur - rah for Yan kee Land.

more to scheme or plan — Democ - ra - cy has come to stay Hur - rah for Yan kee Land.
ov - er God's fair land — And all the world will glad - ly sing Hur - rah for Yan kee Land.

CHORUS

Hur - rah, hur - rah, hur - rah, hur - rah for all our al - lies true Hur - rah for the League and Liberty Day and the old Red, White and Blue With Lin - coln's char - i - ty to all, no malice to race or clan And all the world will sure - ly sing, Hur - rah for Yan - kee Land.

The World's League with our U. S. A.
 Has now evolved a plan
 To reconstruct the very world
 With our Allies hand in hand;
 For all we've fought and bled and died
 To pay no money can
 Peace and good will is all we ask Hurrah for Yankee Land.
