NOV -1 1918 ©UE436555

The WAR BALLAD BEAUTIFUL

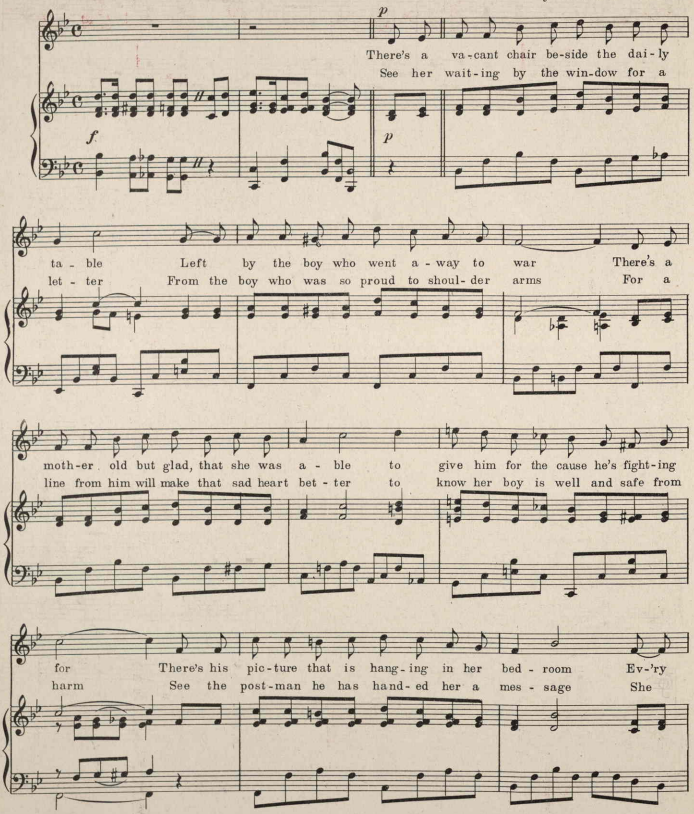
MOTHER PAYS IT ALL

Published by
THE BELL MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.,
29 So. Dearborn St.,
CHICAGO.

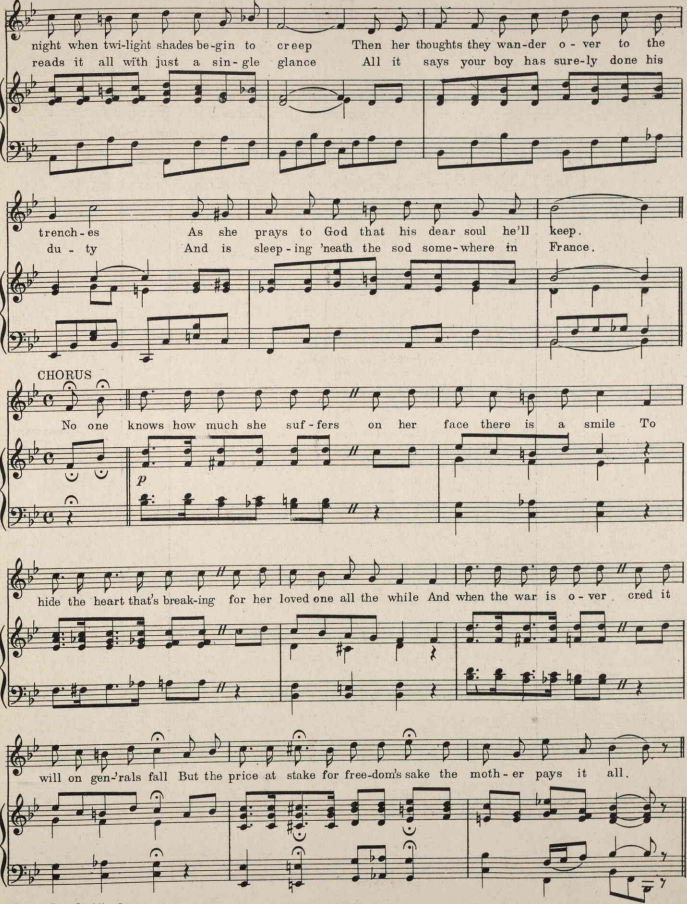
Words and Music by Geo. Clancy

Mother Pays It All

Words and Music
By GEORGE CLANCY



Copyright MCMXVIII by The Bell Music Pub. Co.



Rayner Dalheim & Co.
Music Print Chicago

Two Big Hits

THE STAR AND THE ROSE

Words and Music by George Clancy

This Ballad is One of the Best of Recent Years

CHORUS

If you were a star, and I a little rose,
How I would love you, no one would ever know.
I'd sigh for the night, 'till you were in my sight;
I'd cry at the night when you were not in sight.
I'd pine on the stem for your love as I would grow.
If you were the star and I were the rose.

The Serio Comic Song

"WHEN MOTHER WAS A GIRL"

Words and Music by George Clancy

Published by
THE BELL MUSIC CO.,
29 S. Dearborn St.,
CHICAGO, ILLS.

44525

Press of Rayner, Dalheim & Co., Chicago