©CLE426816
JUN 29 1918

"The Might of Uncle Sam!"

Song to original words

by

Ernst Bystrom

638 Sterling Place

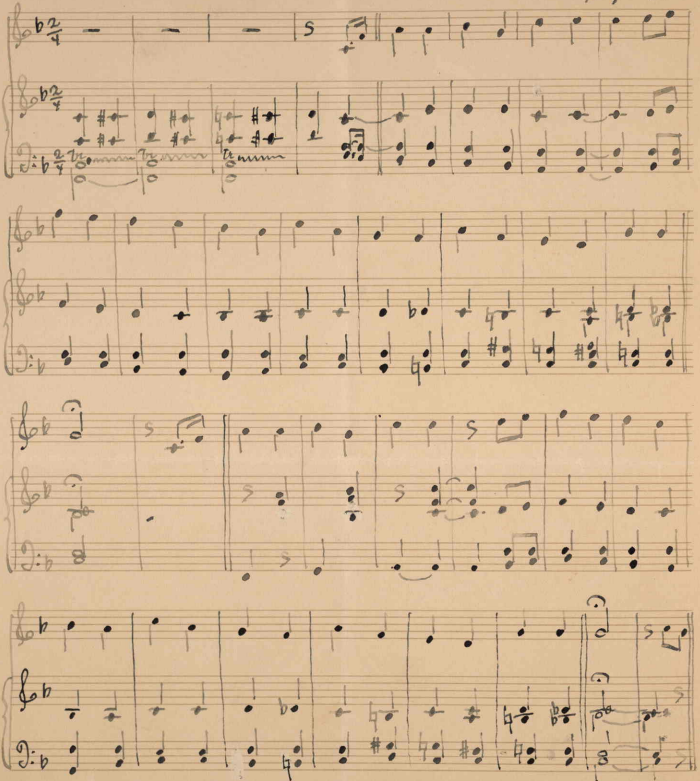
Brooklyn N.Y.

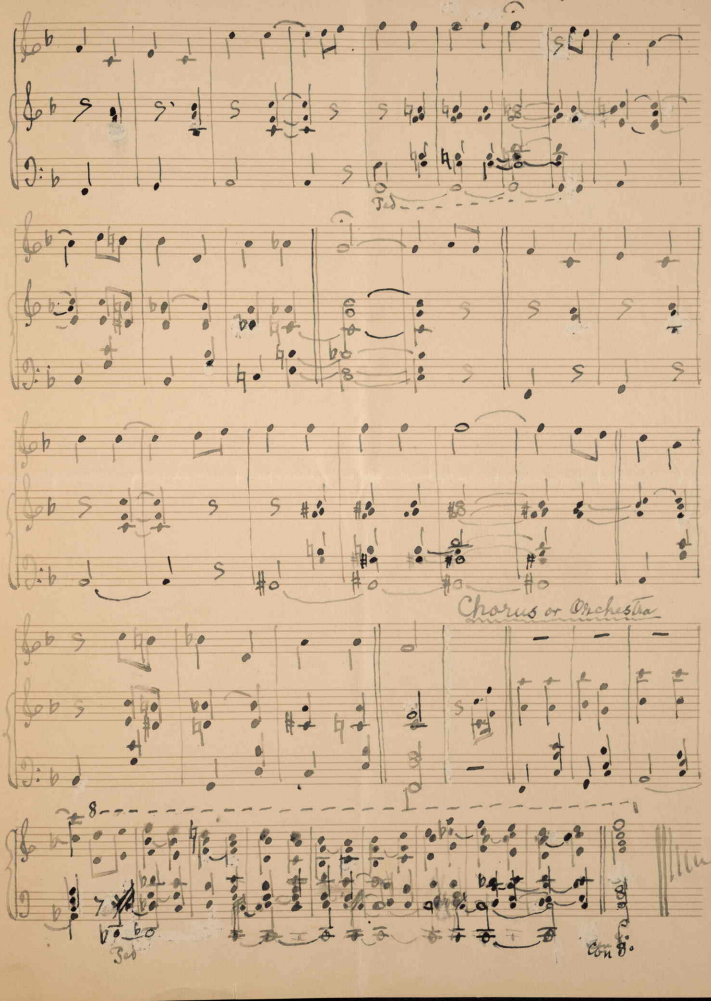
M1646
.B

♩=125

The Might of Uncle Sam.

Words and Music by
Ernst Bystrom





Chorus or Orchestra
8
Con 8.

JUN 29 1918
©CLE426816

The Might of Uncle Sam

by Ernst Bystrom
6388 Sterling Place
Brooklyn N.Y.

Did you see them, our defenders
When they marched through flag draped avenues
Due for battles, roaring fiercely "Over There"?
Then you have not any fear of
Future crimes by Huns or Turks, like
Those we were not there, to stop in time, alas!

But we now are fit and ready,
With the one united yearning:
Stop the Kaiser! Break his misery-breeding reign!
Clean the World of Hohenzollerns,
Make it safe for all our Allies;
They are fighting for a World-Democracy!

Chorus

Clean the World of Hohenzollerns;
We have faith in our Defenders;
They will win our fight for World Democracy!

Did you hear the roar of engines,
Have you seen the rushing millions
Working day and night in factory and plant?
They are backing our defenders
With their brains and horny hands, that
We may speed the most, our victory and peace!

©CLE426816

Ships and Aeros, Shells and Cannons;
Food and Care, our boys need plenty
As in battle, so in hitslling training Camp.
Give, with gen'rous manly Conscience,
All the money you can Spare us,
For our Safety-winning World Democracy.

Chorus

Give, with gen'rous manly Conscience
All the Money you can Spare for
Uncle Sam, to bring us World Democracy

Let the tyrants fear and Suffer
Until they have paid for all the
Barbrous Crimes, that tortured Souls endured, in tears!
The must suffer and make up for
Outraged Women, Slaughtered Children
'Fore we give them any chance to face our God!

We remember, have recorded
All their crimes 'gainst God and man
Lusitania! Rheims' Cathredal! Belgium!
Woe to all who he finds guilty,
Feel the Might of Uncle Sam!
It brings World-peace to a World-Democracy

Chorus

Woe to all who he finds guilty-
Feel the Might of Uncle Sam that Brings us World peace to a World-Democracy.