

That Happy Day

(When the Boys Come Home Again)

Dedicated to "The War Mothers of America" and Sung by Mrs. E. E. Hoskinson at their first National Convention Sept. 18-21, 1918

Words and Music by Mrs. Edward M. Bush

Coliseum in which "The War Mothers of America" held their first National Convention, Evansville, Ind.

Published by PATRIOTIC MUSIC & CARD CO., Evansville, Indiana, U. S. A.

vic - to - ry is won We shall see our gal - lant fought to save the world And they glor - ied in the fact that they could brave - ly for the right They will leave that far off men — Hur - rah! hur - rah!! hur - go — Hur - rah! hur - rah!! hur - shore — Hur - rah! hur - rah!! hur -

Slower and with feeling rah!!! There'll be sobs and there'll be tears In - ter - rah!!! Oh they fought for Lib - er - ty Fought to rah!!! For that peace some men have died And their min - gled with our cheers As we think of those who rest on for - eign set the whole world free Fought that men should live as names are writ - ten high Her - oes they and made im - mor - tal for all shore There'll be heart - aches with our joys As we men Fought and strug - gled for the hour When they'd time Tho' they fought and fell we know That they think of those dear boys Gal - lant boys who shall re - turn no more.

crush a sav - age pow'r That shall nev - er, nev - er rise a - gain.
met each sav - age foe With a smile and that high cour - age so sub lime.

rall.

REFRAIN

Moderato Joyfully

But a hap - py day is com - ing, com - ing soon When our boys come home a gain Since their no - ble work is done Since the

vic - to - ry is won We shall see our gal - lant

men. Prayerfully God speed the day

