VOICE

1. Oh! the Kai-ser was mis -

2. Oh! the Kai-ser and his tak - en when he pre - sumed to say That the Yan-kee boys were cow - ards and would mill - ions were read - y for the fight - But the Frenchmen did the best they could to nev - er see the day When they'd join the al - lied na - tions and soon be in the bat - tle for the right - Till the Brit - ish soon had joined them and held the Kai - ser fray That was tak - ing place a - cross the Atlan - tic O - - - - - cean.

tight; But they're fight - ing still a - cross the Atlan - tic O - - - - - cean.

CHORUS

But we've called the Kai ser's-bluff, And we're send-ing men e - nough To drive the Kai-ser back in - to Ber - lin, boys; For we're on the Kai-ser's track, And we're not a-com-ing back, 'Till we've set-tled all the Peace-plans in Ber - lin, boys.

Oh! the Kaiser said that Uncle Sam never had the nerve,
 To put his men aboard the ships and send them out to serve,
 But we called the boys together and they will throw the curve
 That will put the Kaiser out, on his home plate, sir.

We will free the German people from Hohenzollern rule,
 And will give to them a sample of our freedom's glorious school,
 So the Kaiser and his millions will never try to fool
 The German people into war again, sir.
