

PRIZE WINNING SONG
 SONG WRITERS' CONTEST-FAMILY THEATRE-ROCHESTER,N.Y.

AMERICA
 THE LAND OF SUNSHINE

Words and Music by

DANIEL COLLINS, JR.

Published by BERNARD SCHEIB & ELDRIDGE
 Beckley Bldg.
 ROCHESTER, N.Y.

M1646
 .c

50

"AMERICA" "The Land Of Sunshine"

Arranged by ARTHUR HAUK

Words & Music by DANIEL COLLINS, Jr.

Marcia

TILL READY

When Un-cle Sam u - nit - ed with the "Al - lies" cross the Now that the war is o - ver and the boys are com - ing sea, 'Mid cheers and tears our boys left ev'-ry day. And as they reach'd that home They'll meet a lit - tle la - dy on their way. She holds a light to for - eign land to fight for Lib - er - ty They proudly threw their shoulders back to say.

guide them right where - ver they may roam And as they pass her this they all will say.

CHORUS

We are all from the land of sun - shine — From A - mer - i - ca a - cross the
 We are back to the land of sun - shine — To A - mer - i - ca from o'er the sea ——— We are all from good old U - nit - ed States From the land of the sea ——— We are back to good old U - nit - ed States To the land of the brave and the free ——— We have all left our dear old moth - ers To brave and the free ——— We have done our bit beside our Al - lies For do our du - ty in this cline ——— We have come to fight for Old Glo - ry ev - ry - bo - dy in this cline ——— Now they know what the Yank - ees are made of

And A - mer - i - ca the Land of Sun - shine. shine. shine.
 From A - mer - i - ca the Land of Sun - shine. shine. shine.

