Columbia Still Is Free

Words and Music by David Colvin

(May be sung as a male quartet, by having first tenor take the part written for alto, the second tenor taking the melody.)

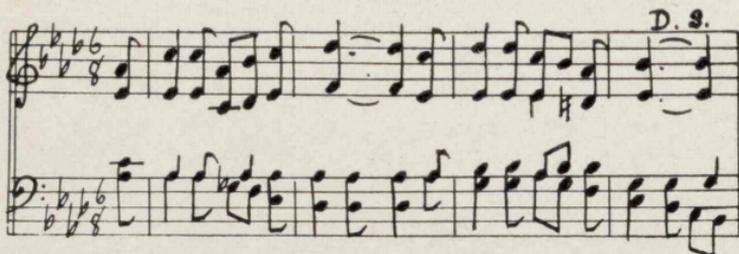

1

We rally at our country's call,
The cause of liberty;

To her we dedicate our all;
Columbia still is free!
Ref. We rally at our country's call;
Columbia still is free!

REFRAIN

2

Our fathers' honor we'll maintain,
 And fight for lasting peace,
 That truth and right shall ever reign,
 And wars and tumults cease.

3

Five hundred thousand be the call;
 We come five million strong;
 And should the brave in numbers fall
 We'll multiply the throng.

4

Thy boys, like eagles mount on high,
 The Kaiser's shells have missed,
 |: And swooping down from out the sky
 |: They'll crush his mail-ed fist. :| :|

5

Old Glory floats at every hand
 And far beyond the sea;
 On Belgae shore and Franco land
 Proclaiming liberty.

6

"From North to South; from Sea to Sea,"
 We're coming at thy call,
 |: "Thy sons forever shall be free"
 |: With thee shall stand, or fall. :| :|
