Piano accompaniment for the second part of the song, corresponding to the vocal line above.

teach the plants to shoot And in the trench to root, And out on dress parade; They make a fine brigade, And know you'll be a sport ranks And nobly hold the fort-Betake you from the And boil you down with thanks To all the earth re-cruit, Free-doms fight to crown, yet they al-ways fade When they're in a stew, cause the food is short Since the Kai-ser spilled the beans, feed the Al-lied Yanks All the wide world the o'er,

CHORUS.

Ad lib.
Hand-some sol-diers, un-i-form'd in greens;

The Regimental Greens.

Corn and wheat and on - ions, spuds and beans; You're
