©CLE444699
MAR -5 1913

Feb 10

A Hero Of The Western Drive.

Words and Music by

GEO. COOK

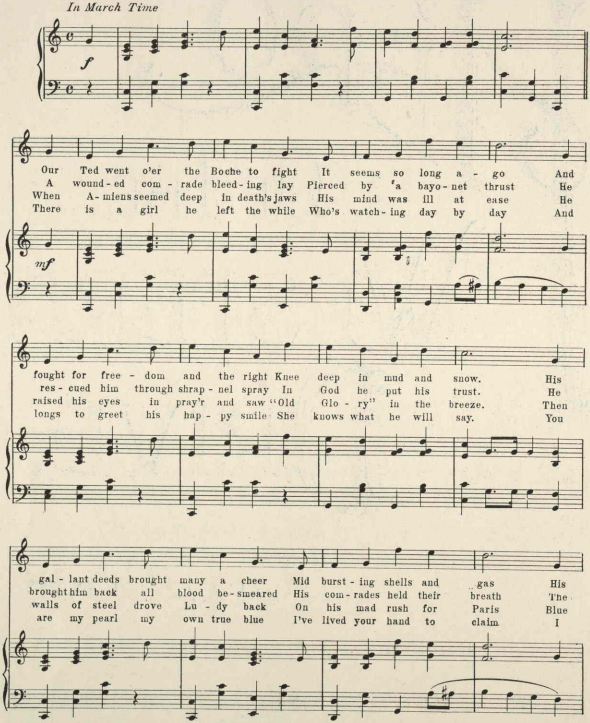
Published by
GEO. COOK,
DUNDAS, ONT. CANADA.

M1679
.C

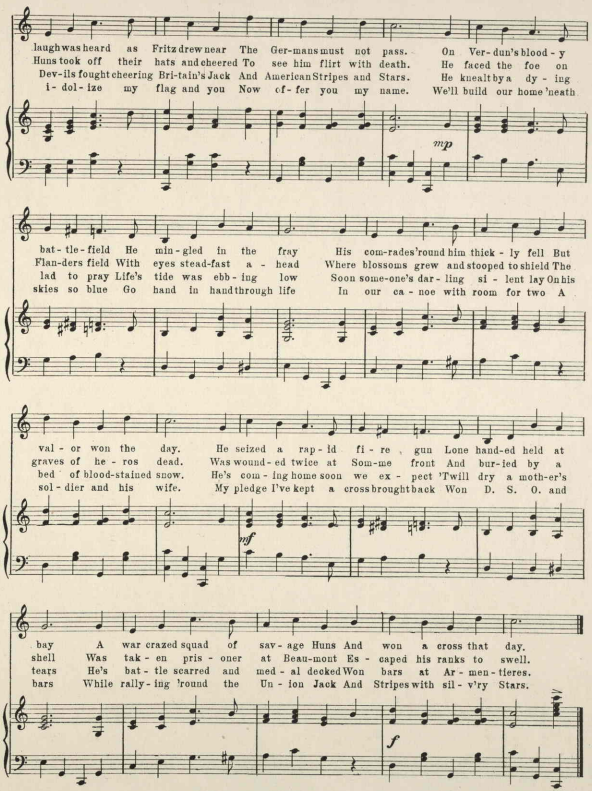
A Hero of the Western Drive

By GEO. COOK

In March Time



Copyright MCMXIX by Geo. Cook. International Copyright Secured.



laugh was heard as Fritz drew near The Ger-mans must not pass. On Ver-dun's blood-y Huns took off their hats and cheered To see him flirt with death. He faced the foe on Dev-ils fought cheering Bri-tain's Jack And American Stripes and Stars. He kneelt by a dy-ing i-dol-ize my flag and you Now of-fer you my name. We'll build our home 'neath mp
bat-tle-field He min-gled in the fray His com-rades 'round him thick-ly fell But Flan-ders field With eyes stead-fast a-head Where blossoms grew and stooped to shield The lad to pray Life's tide was ebb-ing low Soon some-one's dar-ling si-lent lay On his skies so blue Go hand in hand through life In our ca-noe with room for two A val-or won the day. He seized a rap-id fi-re gun Lone hand-ed held at graves of he-ros dead. Was wound-ed twice at Som-me front And bur-ied by a bed of blood-stained snow. He's com-ing home soon we ex-pect 'Twill dry a moth-er's sol-dier and his wife. My pledge I've kept a cross brought back Won D. S. O. and mf
bay A war crazed squad of sav-age Huns And won a cross that day.
shell Was tak-en pris-oner at Beau-mont Es-caped his ranks to swell.
tears He's bat-tle scarred and med-al decked Won bars at Ar-men-tieres.
bars While rally-ing 'round the Un-ion Jack And Stripes with sil-v'ry Stars.
f

451737