©LE 108165

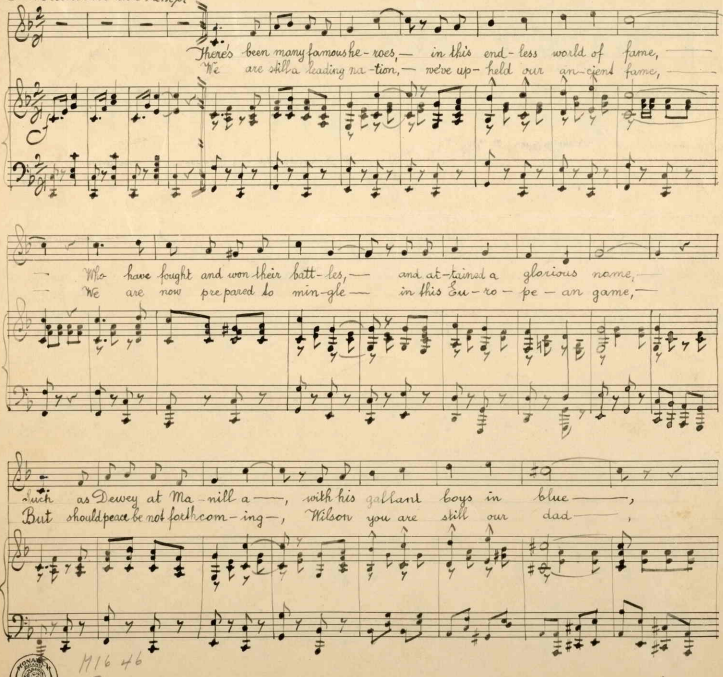
JUN -6 1917

The Leading Man to-day.

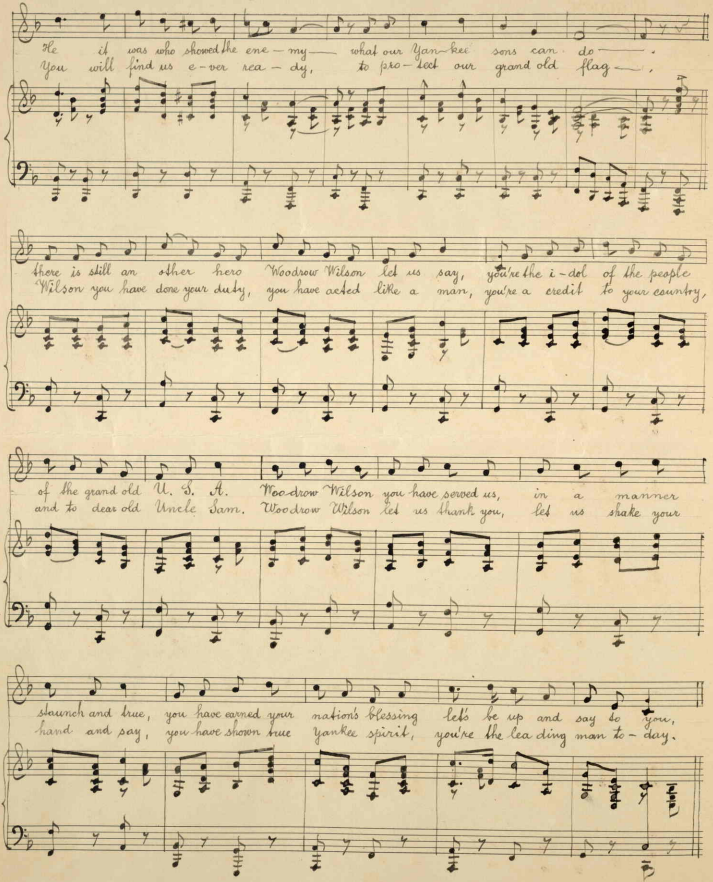
Words by Thomas M. Robertson.

Music by Gus Court

Introduction and Vamp.



M16 46
C



He if was who showed the ene – my — what our Yan – kee sons can do — .
You will find us e – ver rea – dy, to pro – tect our grand old flag — , there is still an other hero Woodrow Wilson let us say, you're the i – dol of the people
Wilson you have done your duty, you have acted like a man, you're a credit to your country, of the grand old U. S. A. Woodrow Wilson you have served us, in a manner and to dear old Uncle Sam. Woodrow Wilson let us thank you, let us shake your staunch and true, you have earned your nations blessing let's be up and say so to you, hand and say, you have shown true Yankee spirit, you're the lea ding man to – day.

Chorus.

Maestoso

Washington was one great hero, he it was who saved our flag,

Lincoln too he proved his valor as our country's leading dad,

Wil- son you have shown true courage, we are ready for the fray,

you deserve your country's tribute as the leading man to- day, ritard.

410616