©CE-128480
JUL -3 1918

Words by
Lew Brown

Music by Ruvey Cowan

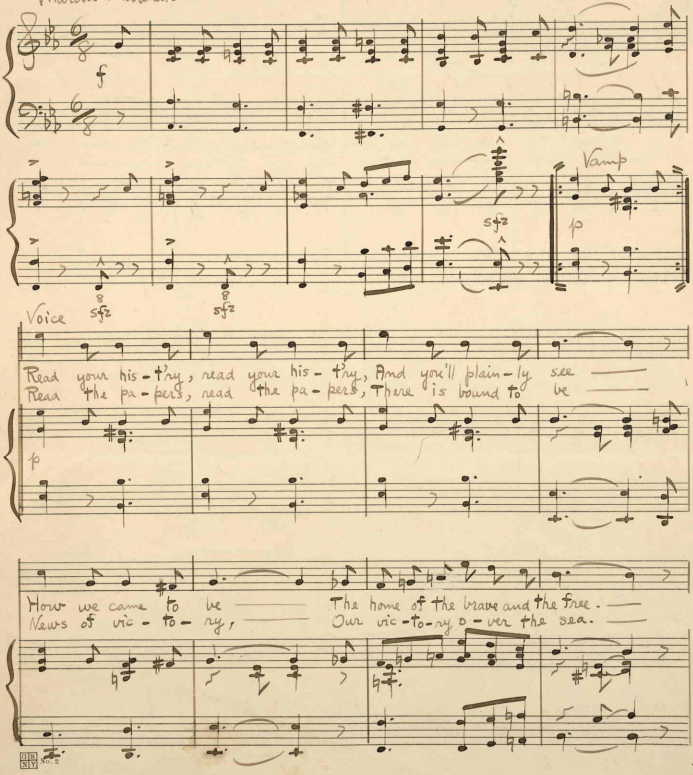
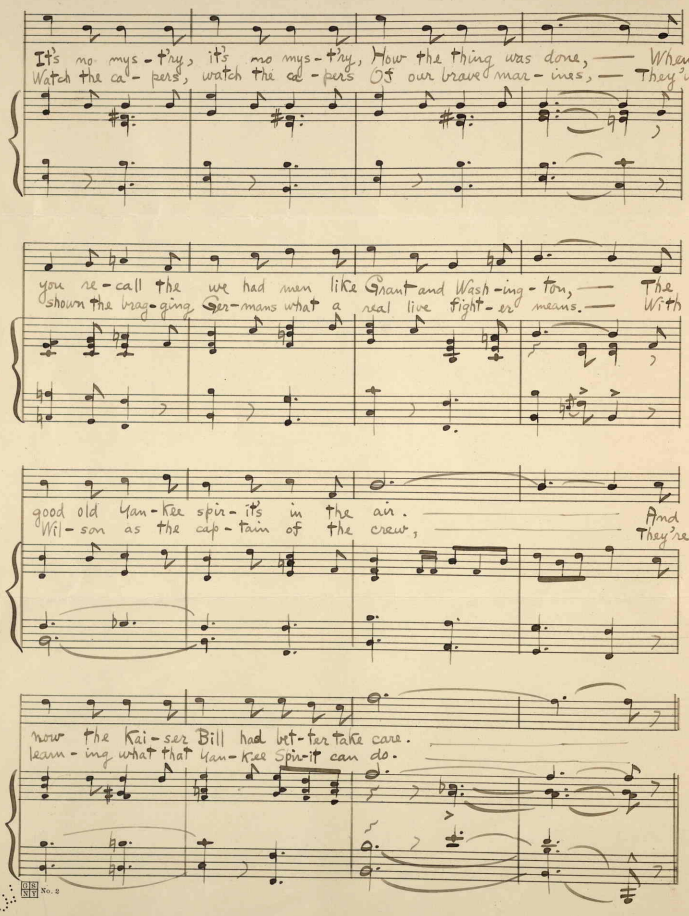
"The Yanks are at It Again"

Marcia Moderato



M1646
.C



It's no mys-t'ry, it's no mys-t'ry, How the thing was done, — When Watch the ca-pers, watch the ca-pers Of our brave mar-ines, — They've you re-call the we had men like Grant and Wash-ing-ton, — The shown the brag-ging Ger-mans what a real live fight-er means. — With good old Yan-kee spir-it's in the air. — And Wil-son as the cap-tain of the crew, — They're now the Kai-ser Bill had bet-ter take care.
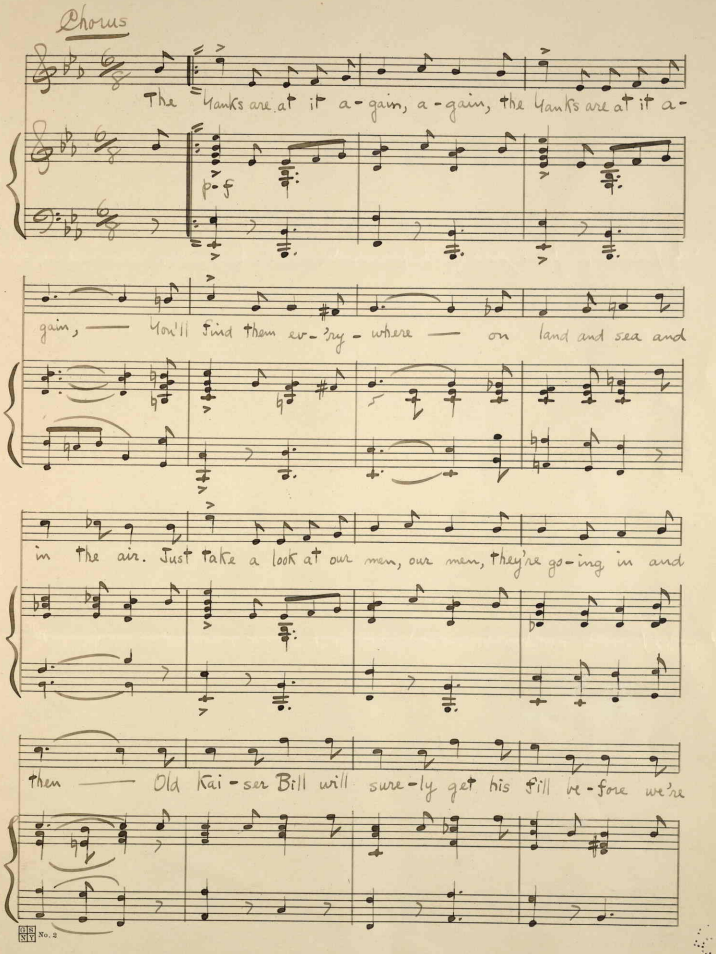
learn-ing what that Yan-kee Spir-it can do.



Chorus
The Yanks are at it a-gain, a-gain, the Yanks are at it ap-f gain, — You'll find them ev-'ry-where — on land and sea and in the air. Just take a look at our men, our men, they're go-ing in and then — Old Kai-ser Bill will sure-ly get his fill be-fore we're through, — For Un-cle Sam will teach him lots of things he nev-er knew. — Our boys have nev-er start-ed an-y-thing they could-n't do. — Look out! Look out! the Yanks are at it again. The-gain.

No. 2