WE'LL GO INTO BATTLE, MOTHER.

Words by MARY L. WOOD.

Music by W. H. CRAIG.

MARCELA.

1. Moth-er, we'll go in - to bat - tle.... At the break - ing of the day;
 2. From the spot where I am ly - ing, In the trench - es' dark - est night,
 3. Moth-er dear, it is dis - tress - ing, And at times you sigh and weep;

Thro' the night the roar and rat - tle.... Of the guns pre - pares our way.
 I can see our ban - ner fly - ing.... By the rock - ets' fit - ful light.
 But you sent me with your bless - ing.... And the trust I needs must keep.

At the dawn will come the er - der, "O'er the top and at the foe."
 While I watch it gen - tly sway - ing Back and forth up - on the breeze.
 If a - mong the dead and - dy - ing One tall lad shall be your son,

From our trench - es on the bor - der In - to No Man's Land we'll go.....
 Moth - er, you, I know, are pray - ing For your boy a - cross the sea.....
 Dead, to keep that han - nor fly - ing, Weep, but say, 'God's will be done.....

REFRAIN.

We go in - to bat - tle, moth - er, At the break - ing of the day,

With our French and Brit - ish broth - er, 'Gainst the Hun in mor - tal fray. We'll be fight - ing for "Old Glo - ry", Star - ry ban - ner of the free, And thro'

com - bat fierce and go - ry, Bear it on to vic - to - ry, ry.
