

JUL 25 1917

Dedicated to the Juniors, Pelham, N.Y.

The Message

Words and Music by
ELLA TICHENOR CRAWFORD

In march time

From a vil-lage in a Swiss town, O'er the blue and brin-y
Through our sold-iers and our sail-ors, Serv-ing Red Cross-Pa-triots deep, Came the Red Cross with a mes-sage To all lands a pledge to we, Lov-ing thoughts and deeds of kind-ness, Ev-er loy-al we will keep. Faith-ful serv-ice to the suf-fring, Mer-cy's call to quick ly be. With a strong u-ni-ted ef-fort, Work-ing brave-ly side by heed, Pro-tec-tion for the work-ers In the time of stress and need.

side, Just to "do our bit" for oth-ers, We'll be work-ers } true and tried.
Jun-iors }

Refrain

We are work-ers for} the Red Cross, With a pur-pose firm and true, For A-We're the Jun-iors of }

mer-ic-a, Our Coun-try, And the dear Red, White and Blue, Re-liev-ing sick and wound-ed, We will an-swer to the call. Lend-ing

com-fort to the sore, dis-tressed, Bring-ing sun-shine where sha-dows fall.

Red Cross, Red Cross, Red Cross Work-ers.
J U N I O R, Red Cross Jun-iors.

Copyright 1917 by Ella Tichenor Crawford, 315 Pelhamdale Ave., Pelham, New York

M1646

1c

413721