Don't forget them

A patriotic Song dedicated to the American Nation

Words and Music by D. Croese

I

We are at war, at war again,
And a rather big one too
But now our men are "Over there"
And they know what to do.
We here, must keep them satisfied,
Providing for their needs,
Our daily thought must be a Bond, (Liberty)
And show them our deeds,

Refrain.

Don't forget them in the struggle
For the freedom of our race,
Did you not hear the Eagle screaming,
When the U-boats struck our face

II

Come on then true Americans,
You might realize too late,
Don't put it off another day,
The risk would be too great.
The Government is calling us,
Let's heartily respond,
Not only money, but the act,
Will help our men beyond } to repeat

Refrain.

III

And what a Joy when they return,
Old Glory Smiling at your house
Our feelings will be blessedness,
To our valiant youth.
Oh peace, or wonderful delight
Then never escape again
It was the fuel in Autocracy
That brought this terrible strain } to repeat

Refrain.
