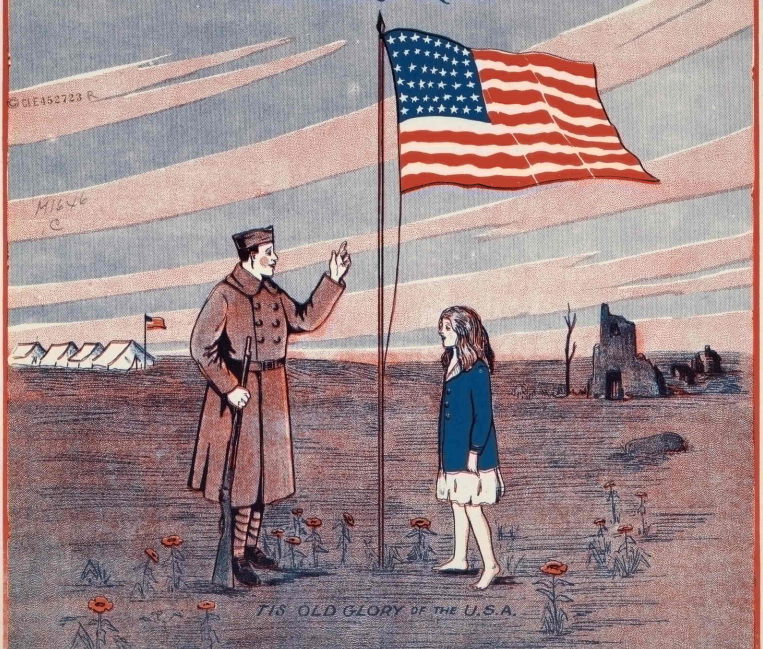
JUN 23 1919

The Poor Little Refugee

Song

BY HENRY CROSS

© CLE 452723



'TIS OLD GLORY OF THE U.S.A.

Published By Henry Cross
Seattle, Wash.

The Poor Little Refugee

Music arranged by ORA BARNEY

Words & Music by HENRY E. CROSS

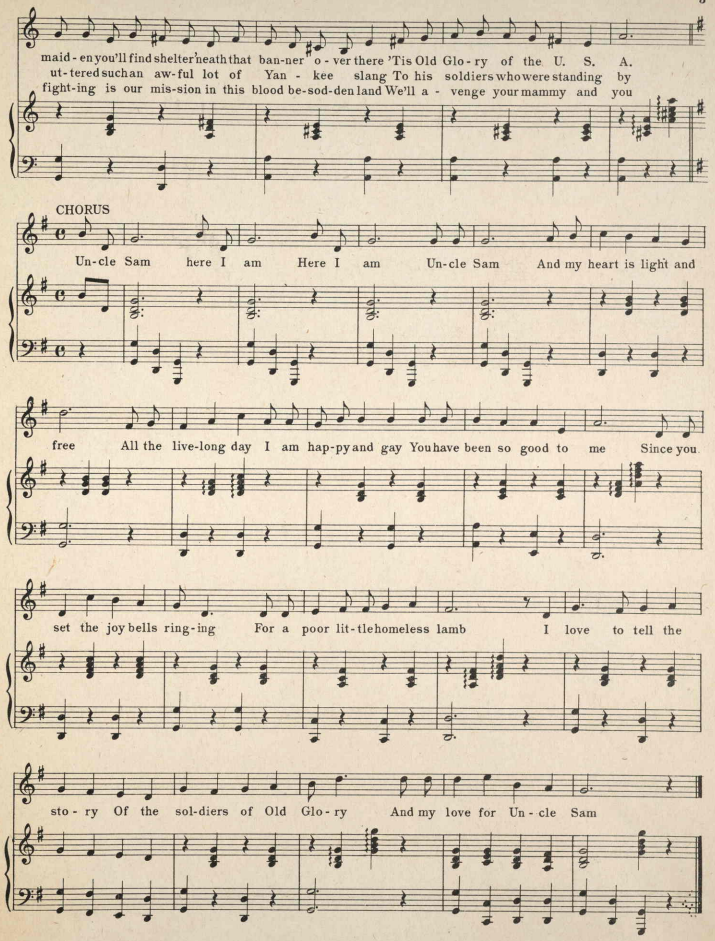
Copyright MCMXIX by Henry E. Cross.



maid - en you'll find shelter 'neath that ban-ner o - ver there 'Tis Old Glo - ry of the U. S. A.
ut - tered such an aw-ful lot of Yan - kee slang To his soldiers who were standing by fight-ing is our mis-sion in this blood be-sod-den land We'll a - venge your mammy and you
CHORUS
Un-cle Sam here I am Here I am Un-cle Sam And my heart is light and free All the live-long day I am hap-py and gay You have been so good to me Since you set the joy bells ring-ing For a poor lit-tle homeless lamb I love to tell the sto - ry Of the sol-diers of Old Glo - ry And my love for Un - cle Sam

463808