Words and music by James D. Brennan

In a trench far away a Canadian lay on the Flemish land far away came a message for him he was

ped ped ped

thinking of dear ones at home Murdered for an ever the sea in the fancy he stayed with a sweet face cupid and fell down a blaze in a radiant charge

ped ped ped ped ped

make to the had wandering lady with baby's foam equitted himself gallantly here and kept summer's day see the hair when has risen proud he fought

ped ped ped ped ped

ship sailed a way he gladdened his true love and true until the last morning his wounds a gain send her don't send a and she read see he ped ped ped ped ped. ped ped.

Dear I will come back my Dear to build just a home for two Lied with great ef fort he tried his mes sage to sing to you Chorus ped ped ped ped ped go now sweet night don't cry for long don't breath a sigh we will meet by and by when the are that light twin kle peace full dove share and the white they wan ny ght ye trees a gain and you will come then

huge
Le
gradual sad
look
Happy
farewell
Your heart will
Your
Where Where Where
