TAKE GOOD CARE OF MOTHER WHILE I'M GONE

Arr. by Chas. Corbeau

Words and Music by
M. R. CALLAN

There's a sweet-faced dear old moth - er And I know there's just an - oth - er Think - ing While the grand old flag is wav - ing My brave Jack is well be - hav - ing He's a of their dar - ling sol - dier boy to - night. While he's at the front a - fight - ing With a sol - dier and a thor - ough - bred clean through. It is real - ly an at - trac - tion To cour - age just de - light - ing To up - hold his grand old coun - try which is right. Jack see this lad in ac - tion, He's a cred - it to the Red, the White and Blue. While just re - ceived a letter, No news could there be bet - ter, From his sweetheart and she tells him how they've shot and shell go screaming Jack's face with smiles is beam - ing And he's think - ing of the ones he left a - been. To him it brings rec - ol - lec - tions And the lone. For him Moth - ers ev - er pray - ing And sweet dear - est of af - fec - tions Of his moth - er and his own sweetheart Kath - leen.

Kath - leen keeps on say - ing: May the God a - bove send poor Jack safe back home.

CHORUS

Take good care of Mother While I'm gone, my sweet Kath - leen I know that she is lone - some and she loves my blue - eyed queen Just kiss her and ca - ress her, Sweet! don't let her poor heart yearn And I'll make you hap - py dear! some day when I re - turn.
