

To the President of the United States of America, August 1917.

Freedom's Battle Song

For Solo and Chorus
With piano accompaniment

Words by Katharine Lee Bates

Music by

L. CAMILIERI

Price 60 cents

Published by The New Singing Society New York, N.Y.

Dedicated to the President of the United States, August 1917

Freedom's Battle-Song.

Poem by KATHARINE LEE BATES.Music by L. CAMILIERI.

March time.

Piano

f

Voice.

Red, white, blue, the flag that leads us on,
Red, white, blue, the flag that leads us on,
Red, white, blue, the flag that leads us on,

f

Stripes as red as blood well shed by many a he-ro gone,
White as peace for whose re-lease our fight-ing-gear we don;
Blue as skies whose star-ry eyes shall see our vict-ry won.

Now 'tis ours to storm the towers of Peace enchain-ed, crushed, profaned shall Free-dom's sons and cham-pi-ons, to

f

ty-ran-ny and wrong,
yet in beau-ty stand,
her our hearts are true,

Free-dom's sons who front the guns with Yet shall bless with fruit-ful-ness her We who fight for Hu-man Right, and

Free-dom's bat-tle-song,
de-so-lat-ed land,
the Red White and Blue.

cresc.

cresc.

f f f

Copyright 1917 by L. Camilieri. Conductor of the New Singing Society, New York.
International Copyright Secured.

The Poem used with kind permission of the Author and of the N. Y. Times.

*
Chorus.

1st Tenor
2nd Tenor

1st Bass
2nd Bass

Fly the flag from dome and steeple, Fly the flag from home and school, Flag of Freedom's birth, While we bat - tle that the rule Of the peo - - ple, By the peo - - ple, For the peo - - ple,

Shall prevail in all the earth, in all the earth, — all the earth. —

f cresc. ff cresc. ff a little slower a little slower in time in time ff

415143