Words & Music by
ADDISON A. DART

A - mer - i - ca, from o'er the sea,
 A - mer - i - ca, our own great land,
 A - mer - i - ca, all hail to thee;
 A - mer - i - ca, our coun - try thee;
 A - mer - i - ca, oh, faith - ful be;

worlds in dark - ness look to thee. War's grim waste na - God of na - tions guide thy hand. Thine it is of Spens - or, thou, of lib - er - ty. Just thy cause, and we will ev - er loy - al be. First thou art in Hope of all hu - man - i - ty. Thine the glo - ry, tions be - wail, And all is lost if thou dost fail To des - ti - ny, The bea - con light of truth to be; For - loud and clear Comes Free - dom's call and thou must hear. To peace and hon - or, First in war, if come it ev - er;

 yet un - told, De - moc - ra - cy now to up - hold. All lead the way from War's dark night To peace and Free-dom's ho - ly light.

 ev - er let thy em - blem wave, De - fend - ed by the true and brave.
 thee we pledge our lives our all, And with thy for - tunes stand or fall.
 First in all our hearts we hold thee, Thy good name in loy - al - ty.
 na - tions now be - hold in thee The might - y foe of tyr - an - ny.

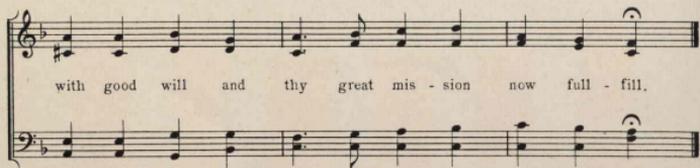

CHORUS

A - mer - i - ca, land of the free, The light of na - tions thou must be. Un - to thy task go with good will and thy great mis - sion now full - fill.
