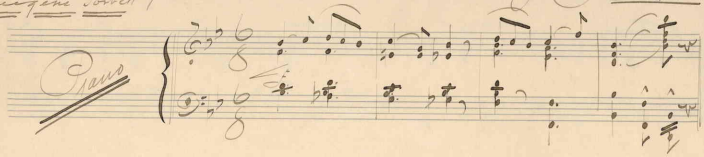
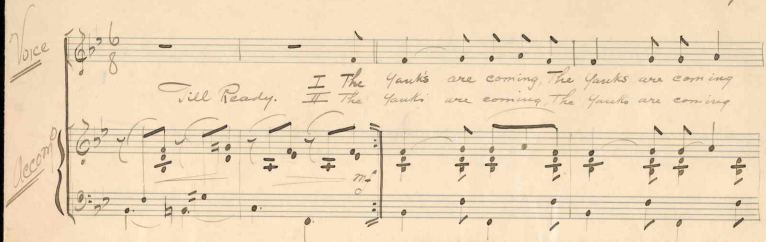
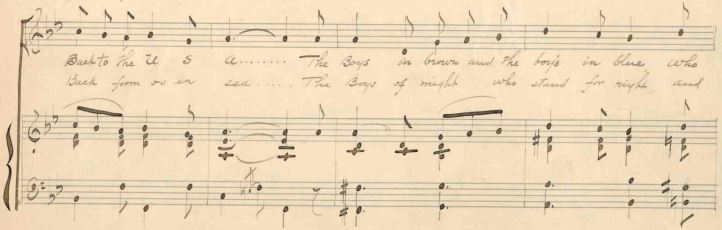
The Yanks are Coming

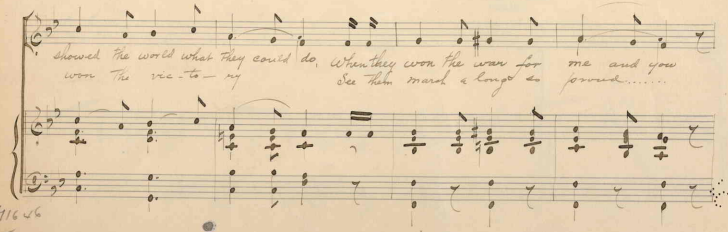
Words by Eugene Jolbett

Music by John M. Davis

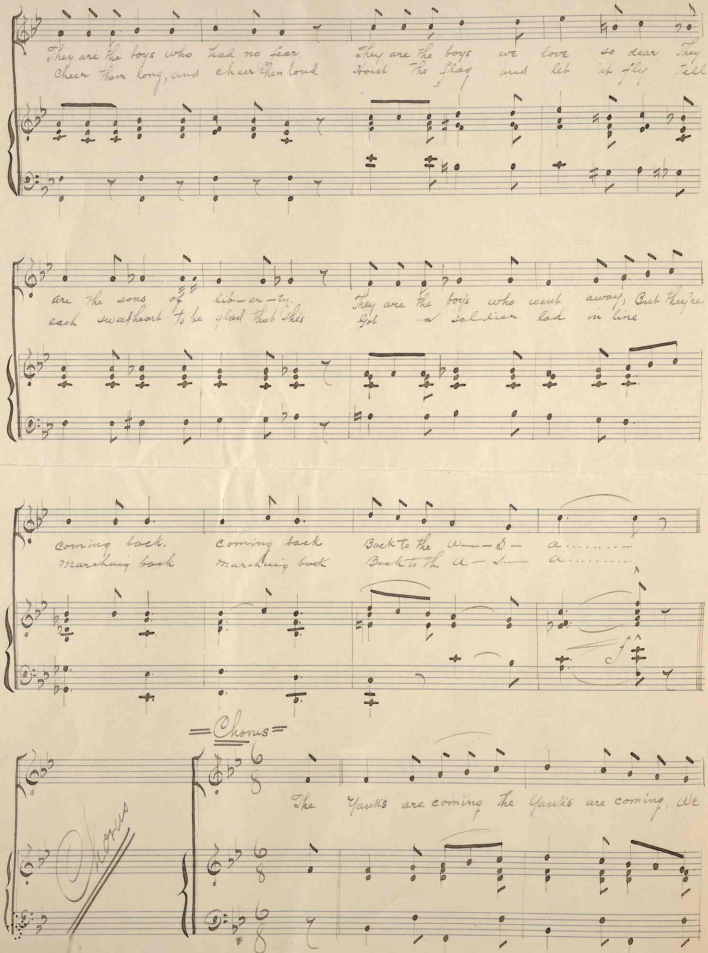








1916 56
A



They are the boys who had no fear
They are the boys we love so dear Cheer them long, and cheer them loud Hoist the flag and let it fly Till
are the sons of lib-er-ty.
They are the boys who went away, each sweetheart to be glad that she's Got a Soldier Lad in line coming back.
coming back
Back to the U—S— A..... marching back
marching back
Back to the U— S— A.....
=Chorus=
The Yanks are coming the Yanks are coming, We hear it every where..... The task is done and the war is won and its over over here..... The whistles will blow and the Band will play and the Girls will sing Oh Joy Oh Boy The Bells will ring and the Flags will fly, And the People will all be gay..... So Join the ranks and welcome the Yanks
