

OCT 26 1918

When The Blue Star Turns To Silver
And The Silver Turns To Gold

Words & Music
By Newton E. Davis

Music Arranged
By Jesse Worthington

In Honor Of The Soldiers Who Have Made The Great Sacrifice.

Price
25 Cents

Published By N.E. Davis 7210 Hough Ave.
Cleveland, Ohio.

Orchestra and Band Arrangements.

2 When The Blue Star Turns To Silver And The Silver Turns To Gold

Arranged by JESS WORTHINGTON

Words and Music by NEWTON E. DAVIS

Allegro Moderato

VOICE

From the hill-sides and the val-leys, from a mil-lion hum-ble homes, Our boys have heard their coun-try's call, and On the bat-tle line our sol-dier true has stood and faced the Hun, His cour-age brave sus-tained his will, in an-swered brave and true. On our ser-vice flag we placed a star, On white a star of blue, It hand his trust-y gun. The sharp com-mand came down the line, "It's o'er the top we go," He tells of love and sac-ri-fice, it's there for home and you. This star shows forth a her-i-tage of an-swered with his life so brave, and went to meet the foe. He fought the brute and took his toll of lib-er-ty di-vine, The lad has gone to give his life, to save your life and mine; We change the blue to en-e-my be-fore, His bod-y felt the sting of lead and fell like men of yore; He died for free-dom ad lib.

sil - ver to show he's gone a-cross, Where the fight is on for free - dom, he may be saved, he may be lost.
 home and God he gave his life for right, We have changed his sil-ver star to gold and placed it on the white.

ad lib.

CHORUS
Moderato

When the blue star turns to sil - ver for our boys so brave and bold, When the sil - ver flows in crim - son and is bur - nished in - to gold; Our boys have giv - en all for free - dom to save the dear cause a - ges old, When the blue star turns to sil - ver and the sil - ver turns to gold.

